Our walk in store is no more but that is about all that has changed. It was a frantic last couple of weeks and it was great to see so many special friends and supporters during that period. Fear not though, we will be continuing and expanding our mail order business. It will mean greater coverage and greater frequency of newsletters, which I can appreciate, is the only means many have of finding out about the wonderful music we carry. You can reach us 7 days a week. If I am out there is an answering machine and I will get back to you with the greatest of speed. This newsletter is largely devoted to sale items. BUT, there are some wonderful new releases and you can guarantee some of these will feature in the year end lists.

Postage rates will be same as before but read on and see how you can get free postage if you make any Bear Family order this month. Regular postage is 1 cd $2/ 2cds $3/ 3-4 cds $6 1 dvd $2/ 2-3 dvds $6

Fayssoux – “Early” $28 Emmylou Harris fans, and there are one or two, may recognise the name as when she was married to prominent bluegrass/country man John Starling she was featured on several Emmylou Harris albums, most notably “Quarter Moon in a Ten Cent Town” where she even sang a duet with Emmy on “Green Rolling Hills”. She dropped out of the music biz as her marriage to Starling broke up and was rediscovered by accident by Nashville Writer and fellow Red Beet Records artis, Peter Cooper, who also does a fine job as producer.

To say this album is spectacular doesn't do it justice; to say it is up there with Kimmie Rhodes "West Texas Heaven", Emmylou's own "Roses in the Snow" and Iris Dement's wondrous "Infamous Angel" does. It is that good. As well as Emmylou singing harmony we hear the voices of Sheryl and Sharon White, David Ball and Joy Lynn White. "The Blackest Crow" is so wonderfully beautiful with exquisite harmonies from Cooper and about 2/3 of the way through Emmy joins in and lifts it to another level. The saddest steel lines from the great Lloyd Green are a delight. Green shines throughout and on Fayssoux's own "Early" he is prominent on dobro, something you may not normally associate with the great Nashville session man. "Save It, Save It" has a country rock feel and is sung as a duet with Peter Cooper. Another great steel solo from Lloyd Green. Back to the folkier stuff on "I Know It's Over" also written by Fayssoux and that harmony with Emmylou...what is that in mine eye...a tear I believe. Crowell's "California Earthquake" is given a tender reading. "Amen Children" is given an upbeat bluegrass rendition and prominently features Ricky Skaggs on mandolin and the Whites. "Bugler" is about a dog and was previously done on the Byrds "Farther Along" album, "Walking Home in the Rain" is a top Paul Craft song previously done by Charlie Sizemore with Lloyd Green again taking a prominent role. The other songs are all right up there. This album should have happened years ago. Thank God it is here with us now.

Peter Cooper "Mission Door" $28 Another case of why has it taken so long to get this album out. Cooper is an artist to be reckoned with. For comparison sake he sounds like a countrier Jackson Browne with a style similar to Radney Foster's earlier albums with a touch of Rodney Crowell for good measure. He wrote 10 of the 12 songs on this with the others coming from Texas songwriter Eric Taylor. "Wine" (which I dedicate to my good mate The Cosmic Cowboy) is all about what wine "doesn't" do for the singer. "Take Care" is about Townes Van Zandt and has some witty lines you could imagine Townes' saying. The title comes from the message Townes' left when he autographed an album for a young Peter Cooper....the only thing Townes himself didn't do. Eric Taylor's "Mission Door" features Taylor's ex wife Nanci Griffith on the 2nd verse, Todd Snider on the 3rd verse and Fayssoux on the 4th verse (after Lloyd Green's delightful dobro solo). They all harmonise on the final chorus. Goose Bump stuff. "They Hate Me" is jointly driven by Bill Lloyd's guitar and Jason Ringenberg's harmonica. "715 (For Hank Aaron)" is equal parts sport and racism with the reaction of people to Aaron breaking Babe Ruth's record. Great line about Babe Ruth not doing "performance enhancing drugs" but "performance restricting drugs". "Andalusia" is about a town in Alabama where Hank Williams once lived. "Thin Wild Mercury" is a collaboration with Todd Snider, and features only Cooper on acoustic and Lloyd Green on steel guitar and is all about Phil Ochs. "Phil Ochs feel through the cracks: Judas went electric and never looked back" A stunning album. If you like any of the artists I've mentioned in this (and you can chuck in John Prine to the mix) you will love this album.

Allen Frizzell "A Little Bit of Lefty Left in Me" $30 Allen is Lefty's younger brother and a talent in his own right and with a voice stunningly similar to his older brother. Allen was married to Shelley West having been lead guitarist in Dotty West's band (Dotty was Shelley's mother). Shelley recorded with Allen's older brother David and when she and Allen divorced that relationship also dissolved. He did one Lefty Tribute album in the 80s and only one other album before his 2007 gospel album. That other album "Piece of My Heart" is due to be released some time in 2008. Trust me it is spectacularly good. This Lefty tribute is also fine and even though a lot of the songs are familiar Allen does enough with them to make them that little bit different. The album features Pig Robbins on piano and Sonny Garrish on steel as well as Allen's lead guitar and superb vocals. The title track is one of those goose bump inducing things that is an absolute knock out. The album ends with the Lefty gospel song "We Crucified Our Jesus" and like all good things leaves us wanting more. David Frizzell joins Allen on "I Never Go Around Mirrors".

Kathy Mattea "Coal" $28 Another delight. The inspiration behind this was the Sago mine disaster in 2006 in which 12 miners lost their lives. This was in Kathy's home state of West Virginia. Comparisons are bound to be made with Patty Loveless' career album "Mountain Soul" which also dealt with aspects of coal mining but not as fully as on this album. They both do great renditions of Darrell Scott's "I'll Never Leave Harlan Alive" and both versions co-exist wonderfully well. If there has ever been a better song about coal mining than Merle Travis's "Dark as a Dungeon" I have not heard it. Kathy has us hanging on every word and the conversational style of the song fits her to a t. Backing is first class throughout and credit must go to producer Marty Stuart who keeps things just right and allows Kathy's voice to shine through. Marty and Stuart Duncan both make strong musical contributions. She covers the works of Jean Ritchie and Hazel Dickens whose song "Black Lung" about the scourge of coal miners may be the most powerful song here. I subscribe to the theory that all great country singing by a female is folk based and I have every reason to put this forward as a classic example. She has come a long way from being a Country Music Association Female Vocalist of the year but this album is just so riveting, intense, dark and yes beautiful I don't think she'd trade it for 10 of those awards. I always thought Kathy was a fabulous folkie and this proves it.

Chime Bells: Best of country Yodel Volume 3 $32 Jasmine UK. Compiler Paul Hazell lived in Australia during the 80s and early 90s and gained a great appreciation of early Australian country music. It is not surprising then that there is quite a few Australian artists featured in the generous 27 tracks. Rather obscure artists such as George Payne stand alongside the likes of Reg Lindsay and Canadian artists such as Donn Reynolds and Alberta Slim. There are some great female yodellers too including one time Bob Wills' member Carolina Cotton and the great Patsy Montana. Very well put together and a must for yodel fans.

Leland Martin – “I’ll Pick the Guitar, You Drive the Truck” $28 Third album by Leland had me holding my breath waiting for the first track to begin. You see his debut “Simply Traditional” was one of the best independent country albums we have ever carried. It had an Alan Jackson meets John Anderson feel and was right up there with the classic and brilliant songs of both artists with the title track perhaps being one of the best 5 independent tracks of all time. The second album, simply called “Leland Martin” was an overly radio friendly outing that failed in every area in which the debut succeeded. I am pleased to advise this album is everything the second was not and may even be better than the first, which is hard to believe. The album has a loose truck driving theme about it...not so much as being a Dave Dudley style but more so involving itself with truck driving themes in the way someone such as Red Steagall may have. “Royal Purple Peterbilt” is very much in the John Anderson mould. “Renegade Joe” is about a truck driver’s dog. “Theodore’s Thoughts” sounds like it could be by our pal Dale Watson. “Shake a Truckdriver’s Hand” is all about the general support given to the armed forces. “I’ll Pick the Guitar, You Drive the Truck” is a Moe/Joe style song with the great Moe Bandy collaborating (he also sings on “Wild Bill”) and very well I might add. But the absolute knock out is “Carry On” a song so wonderful that I couldn’t believe how well written it was and how poignant Leland’s delivery was. The trucking connection concerns a critically injured truck driver being brought into hospital and knowing that he will not make it. In the same hospital is a drastically ill woman who is waiting for the transplant that may save her life. You may guess the rest but it is so fabulously written and brilliantly sung that I would defy anyone not to be moved by it. “Thank God for the Satellite Radio” is an encapsulated history of the truck driving song. “Today Ain’t Your Day” is a bluesy witty little ditty about being down on your luck. 14 tracks and a keeper in every sense of the word. And yes I’d say as good as “Simply Traditional” was this is simply better.

Steve Young – “Stories Round the Horseshoe Bend” $28 This is probably the album that all Steve Young fans have been waiting for; a solo Steve Young performance in which Steve does what he does best, sing and play and introduce each song in a manner that makes its appreciation reach a new level. I heard a rumour that “Seven Bridges Road” was about the bridges that took someone to Hank Williams’ grave but apart from saying that it was about Montgomery Alabama he doesn’t mention Hank...”the song is famous”, he tells us, “I’m not but the song is”...some of the great self deprecating snippets Steve presents us with. He declares his second most famous song to be “Lonesome On’ry and Mean”. It was a song about reforming. Something he didn’t real think Waylon realised. Throughout the intros he liberally makes mention of the likes of Townes Van Zandt. He does a great version of Peter Lafarge’s “Coyote. His “White Trash Song” is introduced as a true story about some cousins of his not to put them down but to lift them up. 27 tracks in total, well make that 15 songs and 12 introductions. Just like being there. He also does other covers such as a great bluesy version of John D Loudermilk's "Tobacco Road". Tell you if Steve came to Australia I'd be first in line for tickets. And I reckon there'd be a lot of folks behind me.

Tony Booth "Is All There Is to a Honky Tonk" $28 Tony had the original hit with "Key's in the Mail box" and recorded several albums on Capitol Records which encapsulated the great themes of country music such as "barstools and cheap California red wine" a line from the title song. He also spent a bit of time with the great Buck Owens (he does a nice version of Buck's "Sweethearts in Heaven"). A good looking stylish bloke Tony spent much of the time between that initial output and this great album as bandleader with Gene Watson. What better place to make a new album than on Heart of Texas Records, the home of Justin Trevino who puts his indelible stamp on this album. There is a new fiddler instead of Bobby Flores in Reggie Rueffler but he loses nothing in comparison and steel guitarist Johnny Cox is a fantastic foil. Vocally Tony is almost a match for Darrell McCall and believe me they don't come any better than that. "Cold Brown Bottle" is a classic drinking song...it's all about escapism and that is what is at the heart of all great country music. As with all Justin Trevino albums there is a great mix of shuffles and heartfelt ballads. Of the latter none is better than "Losing You Just Dawned On Me"; Tony wraps his voice around the vocals whilst the saddest steel guitar plays in the background. Brilliant stuff. The Swedish Cowboy has already worn out 3 copies of this album. I keep telling him he isn't supposed to take them in the sauna but he doesn't care. I am glad Tony has found Texas..they suit each other to a t. This version of "Keys in the Mailbox" is the best I've ever heard. Tony's voice soars and the fiddles wail. Absolute perfection!

Kimmie Rhodes – "Walls Fall Down" $30It isn't "West Texas heaven" but it does have its moments, even if the best ones are covers and one of those is the Beatles "Fool on the Hill" and the other Townes' oft covered "If I Needed You". Rodney Crowell's "Sex & Gasoline", a summation of everything wrong with the world and is nicely handled but Kimmie's own songs are pleasant but not earth shattering.

Heart of Texas Country Reissues

- 1) Hank Thompson – "Treasures: Unreleased 1950s Recordings by Hank Thompson & the Brazos Valley Boys" $28 Sad that Hank passed away before he could complete a new album that he was recording under the auspices of Justin Trevino for Heart of Texas Records. What a deal that would have been. Nonetheless this is pretty special. 20 unissued tracks recorded by Hank in his home studio when he was at his peak. Most are seeing the light of day for the first time and are of the highest standards. Maybe they were filed away and forgotten until someone searched through Hank's archives. Band members included singer/songwriter Billy Gray, steel guitarists Bobby White and Pee Wee Whitewing and fiddler Curly Lewis. Apart from Hank originals there is a great version of the Ted Daffan classic "Born to Lose"

- 2) Cowboy Slim Rinehardt – King of Texas Border Radio $28 He was one of the first true singing cowboys and broadcast over Border Radio in Texas. Patsy Montana got her start singing on the Cowboy Slim show. It was a case of missed opportunities. Ernest Tubb wanted him to sign with Victor and he could have had a recording contract with Decca had he been willing to change his surname to something less German sounding. A member of the Texas Country Music Hall of Fame he died in an auto accident aged only 37. This is the first cd to feature his music and has 26 tracks recorded in the 40s from the paean to being down trodden in "I Had But Fifty cents" to rarely heard western songs . A must for western music fans
- 3) Darrell McCall – Lilydale $28 previously only available on cd as part of the Bear Family box set this is a classic album which was recorded for Columbia and featured a great duet with Willie Nelson on the title cut and Darrell does a wonderful version of the Willie classic "Sad Songs & waltzes". And he rivals Gene Watson even with his take on "Dreams of a Dreamer"

Old Faithful: Songs from the Saddle Jasmine UK $32 Another comp. by ex Aussie resident Paul Hazell and there is also a liberal Aussie selection with tracks by Tex Morton, Buddy Williams and June Holms along with classics such as Elton Britt's "Pinto Pal", Roy Rogers' "A Cowboy Needs a Horse" and Carson Robison's "There's a Bridal Hanging on the Wall" 27 tracks in all.

Bobby Bare – "Singing in the Kitchen"$28 Omni Includes Bobby's "kids" album (for kids of all ages) plus his gospel album "This I Believe" plus some rare 45s and album tracks which round things out at 28 tracks. All but one of the songs ("Scarlet Ribbons") on the "Singing' in the Kitchen" were by Shel Silverstein.

Shel Silverstein – Inside Folk $30

Shel Silverstein – Boy Named Sue and Other Country Songs $30

Speaking of Shel 2 album reissues the former with 17 tracks and the latter with 12. he does the Johnny Cash recorded "25 Minutes to Go" along with the "Unicorn" and the wacky "It Does Not Pay to Be Hip" on the first and the title cut along with "Pathetic Way Of Getting Over Me" and "Comin' After Jinny" on the second.

Songs of the Year $32 Another cd only released in the CrackerBarrel stores in the USA (where Enid tells me she had a great apple pandowdy, something for which I will have to take her word). The album is sensational and even if 10 of the tracks were absolute crap (which they aren't) it would be worth it for 2 tracks alone: Randy Travis' interpretation of the Vern Gosdin classic "Chiselled in Stone" is wonderful. It shows Randy has one of the best ever voices in country music. Only he would have the temerity to cover something so associated with "The Voice". Second is Dierks Bentley and George Jones cover of "Murder & Music Row". George is certainly not what he was as a vocalist and as the Cosmic Cowboy suggested poking knitting needles in each ear would be less painful than listening to Dierks Bentley it works spectacularly well. George is down right hilarious on this track. Third highlight is Trace Adkins wonderful take on "Help Me Make it Though the Night". A great guy with a voice like his deserves something like this and not "Honky Tonk A donk" (or whatever that monstrosity is called). The remaining tracks are:

Willie Nelson & Jack Ingram "Dang Me"

Wreckers "Strawberry Wine"

Trisha Yearwood "Back Hoem Again" (very nice too)

Jo Dee Messina "When I Call Your Name"

Lonestar "City of New Orleans"

Jypsi "Stranger in My House"

Jamie O'Neal & Michael McDonald "I Still believe in You"

Blake Shelton "The Gambler"

Deanna Carter & Heart "Go Rest High on That Mountain"

James Intveld – "Have Faith" $28 It seems as though he has been around forever but this is only James Intveld's 3rd album and indeed the wait has been worthwhile. James has wide appeal; he is revered by rockabilly fans and yet he is not really a rockabilly. Similarly he is well received by fans of traditional country music but he doesn't really fit in there either. Despite having been based in Southern California throughout his career he has recently moved to Nashville for some recording and has added a little polish without removing the rough edges. The opener "Pretty World" (a Wynn Stewart cover) is a great shuffle and features The Jordanaires on backing vocals as well as nice steel and fiddle interplay. It struck me listening to this that James is very much like another artist who is not heard enough in Stacey Dean Campbell. James is a great fan of Rick Nelson and was once a member of his band. Sadly his brother was killed in the plane crash that took Rick's life. He has collaborated well on his Nashville trip "Let's get Started" is a co-write with Kostas and is similarly jaunty. "A Woman's Touch" (co-write with Gary Nicholson) is a moody ballad. James really has a style of his own. Highly recommended and personally I think his best thus far.

Hayes Carll – "Trouble in Mind" $22 I have always liked Hayes Carll as he has a sense of humour and you get the impression he doesn't take himself too seriously (in a John Prine kind of way). "Drunken Poet's Dream" and "Bad Liver and a Broken Heart", "Knockin' Over Whiskey" are classic songs of excess. His ability to cover a range of materials is shown on the nice Darrell Scott ballad "Willing to Love Again". Good Texas fare.

Dale Watson – "Help Your Lord" $30 Very limited edition Dale gospel cd. Nice sound but Spartan packaging. All are original except the opening "Runnin' for Jesus" which along with "Alone, Alone Alone has an old fashioned foot stomping flavour. "Hey There Sinner" has a trombone solo something I dig and then some. Suffice to say it is Dale, you need nothing more than that.

Due in next week:

*Rosie Flores – Rosie Flores $20 Rosie's WB debut is on cd for first time even though some tracks were on a Rounder cd.. Now deleted. Easily her best work with guests Wanda Jackson & Carl Perkins.

*Browns – All the Hits $25 New Collectors Choice titles. Jim Ed and his sisters. Naturally includes "Three Bells" but also earlier hits such as "Looking back to See"

*Gene Clark – "Silverado- Live & Unreleased" $25 Collectors Choice

New from Bear Family

Billy Don Burns – "The Berlin Tapes" $32 Distributed by Bear Family this is a result of the solo tour the slightly wacky Billy Don made to Germany, and features just him and his guitar and a mix of new and old songs of which the spectacular "Outlaws at the Cross" is as good as you are ever going to hear. Comparisons can be made to the likes of Waylon and David Allan Coe, though someone once said to me that where Coe stretches the truth (just a tad mind you) Billy Don actually constricts it. He is a wild and crazy guy but his German mentor has harnessed him to produce what may be his best work. He is a true outlaw and the lyrics, which are included, will make you shake your head. A must for fans of the mentioned artists and the likes of Billy Joe Shaver, Willie Nelson etc.

Juke Joint Boogie: Country and Rockabilly Classics. $15 Bear Family have prepared a sampler to serve as both a bible and an almanac (where did I borrow that phrase from) for their vast volume of work. Strictly limited this 33 track cd is a mere $15 (which even includes postage...see details below). Here the likes of Johnny Seay, Ben Hewitt, Eddie Cletro, Sanford Clark, Glen Glenn, Nita Rita & Ruby (feat. Anita Carter), Rusty York etc. Even includes some previously unissued material. How can anyone pass it by.

Snatch It and Grab It: R & B Classics $15 Second of 3 samplers Bear Family are releasing in 2008 (with the 3rd ...to feature Country, Bluegrass and Instrumental classics down for November). This features a variety of artists including the raunchy Julia Lee and Nellie Lutcher along with the likes of The Platters, Louis Jordan, The Prisonaires, Smiley Lewis, Mickey & Sylvia, King Curtis (no Fifield...not the wrestler), early Little Richard etc. Again $15 and as a lot of customers have a broad based area of interest something a lot will not pass up. Again 33 tracks. Get both samplers and get a postage credit as well.

Mack Vickery – “Live at Alabama Women’s Prison” $32 Mack Vickery is a famous songwriter responsible for such things as “The Fireman” (George Strait), “Ten With a Two” (Willie Nelson), “Jones on the Jukebox” (Becky Hobbs) etc. This is just about his only album and has been rated as having one of the best or worst album covers of all time. I rate it as the former of course. It is a spectacularly macho style reminiscent of Jerry Lee Lewis and includes the most politically incorrect track of all time in “Meat Man” which is included here as a rare bonus. Pity they don’t include a poster of the cover with it!

Buck Owens “Act Naturally – The Buck Owens Recordings 1953-1964”
5cd + 84 page hard cover book. $210 159 tracks (around 6 ½ hours). One of Buck Owens’ last requests was to have Bear Family chronicle his career and this will be the first in a series of box sets. It also features the very creation of the Bakersfield sound so entrenched in the music of Merle Haggard, Wynn Stewart, Red Simpson and even Dwight Yoakam. It includes the hits and even though many have been out before they will sound better on a Bear Family release. It includes 2 previously unissued performances as well as 12 alternate takes. It starts with his early session work and solo recordings such as “Hot Dog” which was also the title track of his comeback album. The set will also include some studio talk with legendary Capitol records producer Ken Nelson (who recently passed away). Also includes his great duets with Rose Maddox. Will be very popular.

Jimmie Skinner – “One Dead Man Ago: Gonna Shake This Shack Tonight” $32 The “Gonna Shake This Shack Tonight” series features uptempo country songs and this cd features Jimmie Skinner’s Capitol, Decca and Mercury recordings. Includes his biggest chart hit “I Found My Girl in The USA” and 33 other tracks. His style is distinctly country honky tonk and like perhaps his closest counterpart in Ernest Tubb opened a series of specialist music stores. This is the first single cd of his vintage 50s honky tonk classics.

Lefty Frizzell – “Steppin’ Out – Gonna Shake This Shack Tonight” $32 A whopping 35 tracks that focus on the uptempo songs of one of the most influential country vocalists of all time. Includes the answer song “If You Can Spare the Time (I Won’t Miss the Money)” and as an added bonus has a very early track by his brother, David Frizzell. With production by Don Law and great studio musicians such as Grady Martin this is a hard to beat single cd compilation.

Rockin’ And Boppin’ in the Desert: Arizona Rockabilly Vol 2 $35
Digipak presentation with 44 page booklet this 30 tracker features a mix of well known and obscure artists. Everyone from Rex Allen through Waylon Jennings to one time Cricket Niki Sullivan are included.

Sleepy LaBeef – “Rocks” $35 digipak The human jukebox, so called because of his ability to play any tune requested by his audience, is featured on 35 tracks dating from the 50s through the early seventies.

The labels include Starday, Dixie, Columbia and Sun. All rock with a bluesy rockabilly sound such as “Baby Let’s Play House”, “Tore Up”, “I Found Out” and many more.

Screamin’ Jay Hawkins “Rocks” $35 digipak. One of the first to use stage props which explored horror movie themes and is said to have influenced Alice Cooper and Kiss....after all he emerged from a coffin to begin his stage show. As a rocker he was remembered for the spectacular “I Put a Spell on You”, which he also wrote but had many great songs. “Frenzy” was included in the x-Files. Believe it or not he was said to have left behind at least 75 offspring. The cd has a lot of rare tracks which have not previously appeared on cd. This is a continuing series and all are nicely packaged with big booklets. This Jay Hawkins book has a 64 page booklet and certainly will show a lot of the visual side of his act. Other artists who have been thus favoured in this series are:

- Bobby Darin
- Fats Domino
- Connie Francis
- Glen Glenn
- Bill Haley
- Roy Hall
- Dale Hawkins
- Ronnie Hawkins (obviously an advantage if your name is Hawkins!!)
- Wanda Jackson XXXXXXX
- Sonny James
- Buddy Knox
- Jerry Lee Lewis
- Ricky Nelson
- Roy Orbison
- Carl Perkins
- Jack Scott XXXXXXX
- Conway Twitty
- Rusty York

XXXXXXX indicates a “Ballads” cd also exists for this artist. Also $35 each.

Sweet Soul Music 1961-65 This is a continuation of the “Blowin’ the Fuse” series which covered the years 1945-1960. Basically the series could be considered collections of hits by mainly black artists. This is a slightly more expensive series at $38 each but every cd has a 70-80 page booklet, around 80 minutes playing time plus spectacular sound and packaging. As always Bear Family sound quality exceed all else on the market. 1961 has such things as Shirelles (“Will You Love me Tomorrow”), Roy Hamilton (“You Can Have Her”), Bobby Lewis (“Tossin’ and Turnin’”), Chris Kenner (“I Like it Like That”), Lee Dorsey (“Ya Ya”) etc
1962 includes Gene Chandler “Duke of Earl”, Drifters (“Up on the Roof”), Cookies (“Chains”), Clyde McPhatter (“Lover Please”), Arthur Alexander (“You Better Move On” etc

1963 includes Ruby and the Romantics (“Our Day Will Come”), Chiffons (“He’s So Fine”, Doris Troy (“Just One Look”), Miracles (“You Really Got a Hold on Me”), Rufus Thomas (“Walking the Dog” etc

1964 includes Betty Everett (“Shoop Shoop Song”), Mary Wells (“My Guy”), Don Covay (“Mercy Mercy”), DixieCups (“Chapel of Love”), Otis Redding (“Security”) etc

1965 includes Ad Libs (“Boy From New York City”), Wilson Pickett (“In the Midnight Hour”), James Brown (“Papa’s Got a Brand New Bag”), Temptations (“My Girl”) etc

Other June releases include:

Rufus Thomas “Sun Years Plus” 29 tracks $35 Includes Mama Thornton’s original “Hound Dog” to which Rufus replied with “Bear Cat”.

John Buck and the Blazers “Chi Chi” 19 tracks $32 an alias of Barry DeVorzon who also recorded as Barry and The Tamerlaines.

The Cues “Why” 28 tracks $32 Includes original version of “Burn That Candle” a hit for Bill Haley and the Comets.

Big Al Sears “Sear-iously” $32 Wailing R & B saxophone. 25 tracks and over (yes over) 80 minutes

Jimmy McCracklin “The Mercury Recordings 1958-1960” $32 Well known as a bluesman McCracklin also graduated to playing rock & roll.

Let Me Be Your Sidetrack: The Influence of Jimmie Rodgers” 6 cd + huge booklet. $160 The new mini box looks a good move by Bear Family. This is getting issued to correspond with the 75th anniversary of Jimmie’s death and Bear Family have gathered together 153 tracks over 6 cds. It even includes a smattering of Australian artists such as Tex Morton (“Dreaming With Tears in My Eyes”), Hawking Brothers (“Old Pal of My Heart”) plus Rick and Thel Carey, Buddy Williams etc. It even includes a Jimmie Rodgers Tribute album which came out on CBS in the early 90s and is of course now deleted. I love David Ball’s version of “Miss the Mississippi” and Bob Dylan’s “My Blue Eyed Janes. This was delayed from last time. All who have ordered it already don not have to re-order. For Jimmie Rodgers fans it is an absolute must however and you would be advised NOT to miss it.

Also popular last time was:

Porter Wagoner – “The Cold Hard Facts of Life” $100 3cds + large booklet

Contains in their entirety Porter’s six concept/theme albums of the late60s and early 70s. These are what Porter is best remembered for.

The albums in order:

1. Confessions Of A Broken Man
2. Soul of a Convict
3. The Cold Hard Facts of Life
4. The Bottom of the Bottle
5. Carroll County Accident
6. Down in the Alley: Skid Row Joe

These songs are the perfect vignettes of life as seen by Porter. Bear’s publicity notes are worth producing. "Features a rogue's gallery of murderers, philanderers (what would be a country song without them), depressives, deat-row inmates, unrepentant barflies, panhandling winos, and other losers." In other words all our favourite types of people. Whilst some of his biggest hits are to be found in these albums ("Green Green Grass of Home", "Carroll County Accident" to name 2), these are the exception rather than the rule. In general we have songs such as: I Relived My Life Today/ The First Mrs Jones/ Hundred Dollar Funeral/ Bottle Bottle/ The Town Drunk etc. 70 tracks in all and I for one will not be going to beddy byes until I sample each and every one of them. Positively and amazingly essential in every single sense of the word. Brilliant concept. Don't you love Porter's narrations??? There are of course a liberal sprinkling herein

A brief word on pricing. Bear Family charge the same for every cd in a set. Thus a 2cd set is twice as expensive as a single cd. Many of these are one only copies and some may appear in other sections. What that means is we had a few extras so put them out real cheap to cull a bit of stock. It is imperative that you order these first if you are doing a mail order. They will go very quickly and even if listing alternates it still may not be any good. Thanks

Travis, Randy	Round the Bend $20 This is due out end of July. It also features a short dvd. The album is superb and is his first straight country album in a while, as distinct from the straight gospel he has been recording; mind you "You Didn't Have a Good Time" is about as good an anti honky tonk song a la Ken Holloway/ Bruce Haynes as you'd hear. He does a great version Of "Don't Think Twice, It's Alright" which starts Out sounding like it is Merle Travis picking the intro and then segues into a wild dobro passage. Production by Kyle Lehning is A+++.
Tyminski, Dan	Wheels $12 (picture cover)
Van Zant	My Kind of country $5
Vincent, Rhonda	Good Thing Going $12 (picture cover)

- 6)Campbell, Stacy Dean – Ashes of an Old Love Paladin 1999 $28

- 8)Nat King Cole – Capitol Collectors Series Capitol 1990 $20 we like to chuck a few classic of this ilk in and the Capitol Collectors Series is one of the best ever as far as selections and presentation go.
- 9)Dalton, Lacy J – Crazy Love 1991 Capitol $30 inc. "Little Boy Blue"
- 10)Dalton, Lacy J – Lacy J 1990 Capitol $25

- 13)Delray, Martin – What Kind of Man 1992 Atlantic $30 2nd of only 2!
- 14)Ethel & Shameless Hussies – Born to Burn 1988 MCA $35 Kacey Jones toured here 2008. Very rare on cd.
- 15)Ewing, Skip – Homegrown Love Libert 1993 $20
- 16)Frickie, Janie – Labor of Love 1989 CBS $30 when she changed to "Frickie" with the extra "I" she made her best two albums and with covers of Steve Earle and Katy Moffatt it is very contemporary.
- 17)Goldens – Rush for Gold Capitol 1990 $18 as good as pop country gets. As excellent as Elton John's "Tumbleweed Connection".
- 18)Grand Funk Railroad – Capitol Collectors Series $20 1991 Capitol
Again a bit of an off the list one but the best single cd ever of them
- 19)Haggard, Marty – Borders & Boundaries 1996 BMG $22 Only cd ever by Merle's talented son. Great voice & semi religious overtones throughout.
- 20)Haggard, Merle – Capitol Collectors Series 1990 Capitol $25 Simply put this brilliant out of print compilation is the best Merle haggard cd on the market.
- 20A)Merle Haggard – Amber Waves of Grain $120 Not a typo. This is just about impossible to find. It was on the market for a very short time.

20B)Merle Haggard – Friend in California $70 as rare and like the preceding in absolute pristine condition.

21)Hardwick, Billy Jnr Too Country BMG 1992 $25 One album and one only. This one had 100% success rate. Wish I had 100 copies. Everyone who ever heard it bought it and most would ask had he any other albums. On that basis it is spectacularly successful.

22)House, James – James House 1989 MCA $30

23)Kane, Keiran – Find My Way Home 1993 Atlantic $35 Between the O’Kanes and Dead Reckoning label...very hard to find and arguably his best. Emmylou Harris guests and is great on “Greener Pastures”.

24)Lewis, Jerry – Capitol Collectors Series 1990 Capitol. “Sunday Driving”

25)McEntire, Reba – Oklahoma Girl 2cds 1994 Polygram 40 tracks of her out of print Mercury sides. This cd too out of print. $35

27)Jennifer McCarter & the McCarters – “Better Be Home Soon” 1990 Wb Same as before but Jennifer gets more billing. Their spectacular acoustic country cover of Crowded House cover song is beautiful. $20

28)Mandrell, Barbara – Keys in the Mailbox 1991 Capitol $20

29)Mandrell, Barbara – Morning Sun 1990 Capitol $25 includes a great version of “Crazy Arms” with Ray Price.

31)Miller, Roger – Country Tunesmith: Best of Roger Miller Volume One 1991 Polygram $40. This 21 track out of print gem features all songs written by Roger but in many cases associated with others eg “Tall Tall trees”/ “Invitation to the Blues”/ “Half a Mind”/ “When Two Worlds Collide”/ “Don’t We All Have the Right”/ “The Last Word in Lonesome is Me”/ “Husbands & Wives”. Even the “King of the Road” box set did not have all these gems on it.

32)Moffatt, Katy – Greatest Show on Earth 1993 Philo $28 One of the best 3 female folky albums we have ever had. It was re-issued as “Evangeline Hotel” when Ringling Brothers Circus objected to the title but this original package is just a must.

33)Montgomery, Melba – Signature Series 2003 EMI Special products $25 Out of print already and only 14 tracks but what a 14 tracks, 5 duets with George Jones inc. “Let’s Invite them Over”, 5 duets with Charlie Louvin plus 4 solo tracks including the great “Hall of Shame”

35) Owens, Buck – Hot Dog 1988 Capitol $35 His comeback album includes Dwight Yoakam on “Under Your Spell Again”

36)Paycheck, Johnny – Survivor 2001 Bo Wil Fitting final independent album recorded early – mid 90s “I Can’t Quit Drinking” has an uneasy truth about it. $25

38)Rabbitt, Eddie – Ten Rounds 1991 Capitol $25 Great album

39)Red Hot & Country 17 tracker on Mercury 1994 which includes artists singing songs unique to this album. Of prime interest would be Johnny Cash’s take on Dylan’s “Forever Young” and his appearance with Brooks & Dunn on “Folsom Prison Blues”. Also Carl Perkins with the Mavericks & Duane Eddy on “Matchbox” is hard to beat. Even so Mark Chesnutt’s take on the Tommy Collins written “Goodbye Comes Hard to Me” is the out and out best track.

- 40)Rich, Charlie – “Pictures and Paintings” 1992 Sire Charlie’s jazziest album much recorded as piano/bass/drums trio, Superb $28

- 46)Sinatra, Frank – Capitol Collectors Series $20 Again...best selection of an artist’s work.
- 47)Smith, Russell – This Little Town CBS 1989 $35 Excellent cd from the lead vocalist of the Amazing Rhythm Aces...inc. Paul Franklin & Mark O’Connor among the personnel.
- 48)Sonnier, Jo-Ei – The Complete Mercury Sessions & More 1992 Polygram $35 Although best known as a Cajun man he also shows he is a consummate honky tonk vocalist. “Cheatin’ Turns Her On” is as good as anything Moe Bandy ever recorded.
- 49)Springfield, Bobby Lee – “All Fired Up” 1987 CBS $28 Includes “Hank Drank” and intro by Eddy Arnold on “What’s He Doing in my World”
- 50)Staley, Karen – Wildest Dreams 1989 MCA Great album by singer songwriter highlighted by the upbeat “He Thinks He’s James Dean”.

- 59)Watson, Gene – “Back in the Fire” 1989 WB $60. Spectacularly fine cd and even though he has been remarkably consistent (and still is) in a 35 year plus career this is his magnum opus!!

Memorabilia Items These are one of each and anyone who visited our store may have seen them on the wall. They are sold with the greatest reluctance but frankly I just don't have anywhere to put them except inside some dark cupboard. Posters will be sent in a poster tube. All are in excellent shape. Believe me they'd be on my wall if they could!

- 9)Rogers, Roy 26" wide x 39" high x 3 posters. These are absolutely beautiful. Can't begin to describe how beautiful. They are vintage art style for Roy Rogers film festival and there was a different poster each year. 1 & 2 are laminated whilst 3 is not but would suggest laminating is the way to go as they would cost a fortune to frame and look fantastic the way they are. They are no longer available in any way shape or form Bear in mind laminating costs and this is very reasonable believe me. Plus approx. 28 x 17 poster for Roy Rogers Tribute album from nearly 90s. Features a very nice pic of very young Roy. Not laminated. All 4 $180 and will include post in that.
- 10) Set of 3 tin advertisement reproductions:
