I apologise this newsletter has been a while in coming but frankly the loss of a very good friend has set me back more than a little. Any one who had been to my store may have met my good mate, Charlie Evans. Certainly if you had been in a few times you would have. Charlie was a mate almost from the day I opened. We bypassed the preamble and he became a trusted friend and ally from the word go. Sadly, Charlie passed away in August after what was in effect not a short illness. He was as close to being the quintessential Aussie as anyone you could meet, with only the best qualities filtering through. There were simply no bad qualities in Charlie. We bounced things off each other and we laughed. We crapped on and we were philosophical. And we never had a harsh word for each other in all the time I knew him. He was always an inspiration to me. He was a little like the knight in Monty Python's Holy Grail. You know the one; he loses an arm, then another but says it was "only a flesh wound". Charlie was like that. He suffered a lot of pain and illness in the time I knew him but he would always say "I'm okay". You knew deep down that wasn't the case and that is the hard bit. You still half expect a phone call or a visit but you know it isn't going to happen. But Charlie would not want anyone to feel sad in any way. A 2 hour visit I had with him when he was in hospital is something I will treasure forever. Simply put there was none better and I really do believe he wore shorts "because I wore out all the knees in my trousers by praying too much". Well, maybe I don't but it could very well have been. His family are in my thoughts. I was truly blessed to have a friend such as Charlie Evans. Enough said. Thank you.

Now, on with the newsletter. There are many gems. O, yeah!!

Amber Digby – Passion, Pride & What Might Have Been $30

The greatest independent female vocalist of all time has returned with her third album, again produced by the great Justin Trevino and featuring her interpretations of some wonderful songs. No pseudo political correctness, Amber is the honky tonk girl full on, lying drinking and cheating her way through an album that will stand up with the classics and even passes her first two efforts which are of course enshrined in the Yesterday & Today Records Hall of Fame. She has a new band led by her new husband, Randy "Bobo" Lindley (don't you wish you were called "Bobo") and shows she is the consummate vocalist with interpretations of songs of the likes of Wynn Stewart, Loretta Lynn and Ronnie Milsap, who contributes the liner notes. Something that has let her previous albums down a tad has been the unimaginative album covers. This is easily the best. Superb in fact. Glad to see they have worked hard on this important presentation aspect. Lots of info too. Tracks:

How You Drink The Wine

Love Is The Foundation

I Can't Get Used To Being Lonely

Deep As Your Pocket

She Didn't Color Daddy

One Kiss Away From Loneliness

Soakin' Wet

Let Me Be The Judge

Bring Your Love Back To Me

Take Me Back Again

You Snap Your Fingers (And I'm Back In Your Hands)

We're The Kind Of People (That Make The Jukebox Play)

And yes folks, it may even outdo Miss Leslie as Album of the Year.

For those who don't already have them we also have the first two:

Music from the Honky Tonks $30

Here Come the Teardrops $30

It is hard to imagine anyone having just one Amber Digby album.

Patty Loveless – "Sleepless Nights" $30 Subtitled, "The Traditional Country Soul of Patty Loveless" this cd confirms what we already know and that Patty is the consummate female country singer of her age. She has presented us with her interpretations of 14 country standards which don't merely mimic the originals. The title track was revamped by Gram Parsons in the 70s and Patty combines with Vince Gill to offer a superb soaring version which takes the song to new heights. She has also enlisted the aid of Aussie Jedd Hughes, a member of her touring band, for a great take on a song George Jones recorded with Gene Pitney, "That's All It took".

Her producer husband, Emory Gordy, has assembled a fine bunch of musicians to back her including legends Harold Bradley on guitar and Hargus "Pig" Robbins on piano. She does a wonderful version of Dolly Parton's "The Pain of Loving You", and holds back not one bit on the emotion. That is what I love about Patty..her sheer emotion. She puts all into each and every song she sings. Her love of the music of George Jones is shown to great effect on "Color of the Blues" and the song written by Dickey Lee, "She Thinks I Still Care", which was the subject of a wonderful Pinkard & Bowden parody in "She Thinks I Steal Cars". It is great to here a female version of the Carl & Pearl Butler smash "Don't Let Me Cross Over" as it is a take on a hit for Conway Twitty "Next in Line". She could literally sing the phone book! A must!!

Heads Hands & Feet "Old Soldiers Never Die" $20 Reissue of a very popular UK group who were often compared to The Band. Like The Band they had a number of lead vocalists; although the majority were handled by Tony Colton they often traded lines in the songs most notably on the opening "Jack of All Trades". Chas Hodges (vocalist number 2) went on to form Chas & Dave (he sings in his natural voice here, though personally I found something likeable about Chas & Dave) whilst Albert Lee (vocalist number 3 and guitar wiz extraordinaire) went on to do a number of things which included being a member of Emmylou Harris' "Hot Band". This includes the original version of his most famous song "Country Boy" (which of course was a hit for Ricky Skaggs) and features a fine vocal by Albert and of course some of his famed guitar picking. "Just Another Ambush" has similar themes to The Band's classic second album. In addition a couple of lush ballads especially "Soft word Sunday Morning" are particularly effective. Reissued on the excellent Wounded Bird label.

Bill Green – "Dang These Texas Honky tonks" $30

The Swedish Cowboy may be the world's greatest collector of independent honky tonk music. He has a genuine set of Texas bullhorns set up over his music system which is in his bar which has all the accoutrements such as Johnny Walker bottles, peanuts in the shell and of course a bowl of salted Baltic herrings (I did say a Swedish bar). And on the player which is attuned so as to not play anything which does not contain at least 3 shuffles has been this great Bill Green cd.

You would almost define the style with the exciting "Under a Neon Halo" being just about the perfect opener. Only thing Mrs Cowboy has not seen him for over a week and when she attempted to have him come out for the evening smorgasbord she was greeted with a rather abrupt "just one more time". It finally took a bowl of his favourite "giftas" dessert, with extra cream, to lure him out. Even then he went by the computer to punch out a message that this was a "real Texas country music album". I must say I love this album almost as much as the Swedish cowboy....I guess I do love it as much but perhaps with a different degree in showing it. Bill Green runs BGM Records which also boasts the great Tex-Mex artist Billy Mata. I guess you could say Bill was schooled in the classic Ray Price/Johnny Bush school. As far as I know this is only the second album he has ever had. Every Texas group must have a fiddle player and steel guitarist better than any Nashville player. That is certainly the case with Richard Helsley and Kenny Groham respectively. "Dang These Texas Honky Tonks" from another under-recorded Texas artist in David Price paints an exact picture of that wonderful establishment. Price also contributes "Unsung Hero of the Honky Tonks" about the guy who hasn't made it big but hasn't given up hope. "Texas Greats" from one of his earlier sessions is added as a bonus and sounds totally in place even though it was recorded back in 1976 and makes a reference to the likes of Johnny Bush and the great Darrell McCall, Red Steagall, Charlie Walker (who sadly has just passed away) etc. We just hope there is not such a gap between this and the next album.

Emmylou Harris – "Last Date" $28 Back in print again but who knows how long for. One of the best live country albums ever and it captures her at her peak. Barry Tashian is the perfect foil for Emmylou and fits comfortably into the Gram Parsons role. It is served up with 2 bonus tracks. Her position as an outstanding vocalist is shown at its best on the title track which was originally by Floyd Cramer but featured words by Conway Twitty. She is the consummate female country balladeer. She shows her interpretive ability with a cover of Springsteen's "Racing in the Streets" (as she did later with several off Nebraska). Unlike a lot of live albums she steers clear of rehashing already recorded material.

Don Imus's Friends "The Imus Ranch Record" $28 Imus is an American shock jock a la Howard Stern, who also happens to have an affinity with country music. Best I guess just to tell you what's on it. The Little Richard sings Mel Tillis is very good.

1. Patty Loveless – Silver Springs (Stevie Nicks song)
2. Delbert McClinton – Lay Down Sally
3. Lucinda Williams – Mamas Don't let Your Babies etc. good!!
4. Levon Helm – You Better Move On
5. Raul Malo – Life Has Its Little Ups and Downs ****
6. Little Richard – I Ain't Never
7. Randy Travis – I Don't See You in My Eyes Anymore
8. Big & Rich – Fight for the Right to Party
9. Willie Nelson – What a Difference a Day Makes
10. Dwight Yoakam – Give Back the Key to My Heart
11. Bekka Bramlett – What Happened

12. John Hiatt – Welfare Music

13. Vince Gill – Satisfied Mind

 Raul Malo should do a Charlie Rich tribute album!!

Ray Sanders "Sings Texas Dance Hall Style"

Curtis Potter "Sings Willie Nelson"

Ray Sanders "Sings Country"

Curtis Potter with Ray Sanders & Darrell McCall "Texas Dance Hall Music"

4 cds from the revitalised Hillside Records.

This is mainly classic 70s country.

Ray Sanders in particular on the "Sings Texas Dance Hall Style" has a style not much dissimilar to the previous Bill Green album. And the musicians read like a veritable who's who, Lloyd Green on steel, Pig Robbins on piano, Bob Moore on bass and the recently deceased Buddy Harmon on drums. 14 tracks include only one you would term familiar ("My Special Angel") and the rest are a mix of originals, including the opening "Shuffle Me Back to Texas" as well as songs by the likes of "Beer Drinking Music", by Red Steagall, which was a hit for Ray and songs by the likes of Billy Mize, Nat Stuckey and Jerry Chestnut ("Another Place Another Time" ...which was also recorded by Jerry Lee Lewis). Great stuff all the way. A little bit of 70s style on the cover when the body shirt was in vogue. But you don't play the covers!! The music says it all.

The Curtis Potter "Sings Willie Nelson" album is seemingly previously unreleased material. Nice, but a little too much reliance on the common Willie tracks, though a new version of "Hello Walls" is performed as a duet.

"Texas Dance Hall Music" is not culled from other performances but was an actual album and all participants trade vocals. Sanders has a tenor voice so he is probably the standout. Honestly if there was a quartet album of Darrell, Curtis, Johnny Bush and Ray Price (maybe with a guest vocal appearance by Ray Pennington) we'd be scratching our heads till the cows came home as to who was who. Presented in paper sleeve format.

Ray Sanders "Country" is a class covers album (and also features a wonderfully outdated 70s cover). His version of the song associated with David Houston, "Almost Persuaded" is at least as good. "It's Such a Pretty World Today" was a hit for, but not written by Wynn Stewart. All good stuff.

George Jones – "Burn Your Playhouse Down: The Unreleased Duets" $30

George is seen holding a lighted cigarette on the album cover, which seems a rather strange thing in today's market. Almost like a Blue Note jazz cover of the 50s. In essence there is one fairly new track and that is the one George does with his and Tammy's daughter, Georgette. The resemblance to her mother is scary. Whether she will be recorded more is anyone's guess but in the famous daughter stakes she is certainly better than Lisa Marie Presley (but then again that wouldn't be hard). The album is mainly the work of Brian Ahern, who produced the "Bradley Barn Sessions" album in 1994 and 7 of the 12 songs are unissued tracks from that session of which the personal favourite is the album's title song with Keith Richards, who should, as I have said many times before, make a complete country album. The tracks from this session are all fine and feature Leon Russell ("Window Up Above" which he also performed on his "Hank Wilson's Back" album), Mark Chesnutt, Mark Knopfler, Marty Stuart, Ricky Skaggs and Vince Gill. The earliest track dates from 1977 and features a nice duet with Tammy ("Lovin' You, Lovin' Me"). "Rockin' Years" with Dolly Parton has previously been released as a duet with Ricky Van Shelton and it wouldn't surprise if it were the same backing track used here. I didn't think it much of a track when done with Ricky Van and still don't think it anything to write home about. "I Always Get It Right With You" features Shelby Lynne and being from 1988 must have been one of her first ever recordings. Similarly "Tavern Choir" with Jim Lauderdale must have represented one of his first recordings. Everybody loves a duets album and when George is the main participant you simply can't go wrong.

Michael Martin Murphey "Cowboy Christmas Gift Set" $28

Back for this year's lot of Christmas releases is this cd/dvd set. The dvd is the knockout here as it features a selection of excellent performances (27 in all) from Texas, Oklahoma & Missouri which could be played all year round. A lot of the shows and songs have a Christmas theme which avoids the standard Christmas songs. Many are Murphey originals which are themed around the Christmas period. The cd presents mainly traditional Christmas songs recorded in an acoustic setting, none of which are repeated on the dvd. Again the dvd is a knockout.

Jason Allen "The Twilight Zone" $30 This contains what in my opinion is the best ever country interpretation of a very non country song and that is his wondrous version of the Stevie Wonder classic (but certainly not in the eyes of Nick Hornby) "I Just Called to say I Love You" which is magically transformed into a loping swing number which is just brilliant. "He's Still Dancing With Her" is a nice bit of nostalgia which would be the perfect vehicle for Mark Chesnutt. "Jenny Lee" is a duet with Deryl Dodd. "I Can't Let Go" has a Buddy Holly feel about it. The great Bobby Flores adds some excellent fiddle touches throughout. Great variety. A couple of songs have a Roy Orbison feel and "Dance With Me Baby" is a full on swing number replete with horns. But the country take on Stevie Wonder is a touch of pure genius.

Jason Byrd – Just a Southern Thang $30. Excellent album all the way. Firstly he has the seal of approval from George Jones himself (and is currently George's opening act) and what's more the album is produced by the great Billy Sherrill, who certainly needs something out of the ordinary nowadays to get behind the board. The voice is excellent, a tad Mark Chesnutt, a tad Ricky Van Shelton and Tracy Byrd...little bits here and there. Most of the tracks are co-writes with Jim "Chattahoochee" McBride and Jerry Salley who has of course quite an Australia connection and wrote the song recorded by Catherine Britt & Elton John, which should have been a huge hit. However Jason is a great writer himself and his two solo "writes", "The Checkout Line" and the glorious ballad "You Were There" are among the best songs on the album. But of the 11 songs I would personally only rate the opener "Lovin' in the Country" as being below par. But how that changes; "How Quickly They Forget" has instant classic written all over it. Great drawling vocal and perfect accompaniment, with a-teamers such as Stev Gibson and Mark Casstevens on guitar, Mike Johnson on steel and Hoot Hester and Joe Spivey on fiddle. Word is that Jason has been signed to Mercury Nashville, which we would hope is true. There may be hope for them yet!!

Bobby Dale – "Something We Can't Stop $30 Looking a little like Michael Douglas (how good is the movie "Falling Down??!!) Bobby Dale is the real deal. He reminds of the likes of Norman Wade (but Bobby is a better singer) in that the songs are wonderfully drawling Texas honky tonk classics. Laid back classics... all written by the man himself. "Brunette" is a bit of a change of pace and has some nice piano, which would seem to be by Steve Maynard who plays on half the album (and the great Pig Robbins on the other half). Hargus ("Pig" to his friends) shines on "Talking to you Picture", a plea to all that is seemingly left of a relationship. Classic stuff. A true classic of crying in your beer country music. The Swedish cowboy is walking round in circles. How could there be so many good things at once. Not one track would be a chance on country radio and a finer recommendation I could not give.

Dr Hook and the Medicine Show "Dr Hook & Medicine Show"/ "Sloppy Seconds"/"Belly Up" $38 3 albums remastered on a double cd set from BGO UK. This is of course mainly Shel Silverstein songs. Shel was responsible for all bar one on the first album, wrote all on the second and 7 of 11 on the 3rd (which are not surprisingly the best songs, especially the great ditty "The Wonderful Soup Stone", which was also recorded by Bobby Bare). Nicely presented in a slip case which features all three album covers. If you chucked in the album "Bankrupt", which has basically the final Silverstein-Hook contributions I reckon you'd have all the Dr Hook you would ever need.

Chris Knight "Heart of Stone" $25 He has come a long way from his debut self titled Steve Earle styled album. This is pretty raunchy and Chris almost goes into Delbert McClinton style territory in several places. Certainly a departure from his folkier "Trailer Tapes" cd but then again not everybody goes for the harder edge.

Cathy Dale "I Believe in Me" $25 This has a very traditional style and comparisons have been made to the late Sammi Smith. 14 songs recorded for the Broadland label in Nashville in the 90s but apparently unissued till now. It seems the owner is one Mr Roy G Ownby and all I can say Roy, where you been. This stuff is all outstanding and reminiscent of the works of Bob Grady, long held in esteem as an indie producer supreme. Roy, known as Jack to all his friends (which makes sense) is the author of the biography of Hank Snow.

George Hamilton IV – "Songs of Faith & Inspiration" $25 18 track gospel with most being written by the aforementioned Roy G "Jack" Ownby. And the good thing is all have quality. The thing about gospel albums and Christmas albums too is that many tend to cover the songs that everyone else does. I mean how many versions of "Peace in the Valley" and "Amazing Grace" do you need? The songs here tells stories and are extremely well put together. "Forty One Dollars" is a good old fashioned tear-jerker. "I've Never Seen an Armored Car Following a Hearse" is simple downhome logic but what a title! "The Golden Rule" has a more standard style gospel message with a twist. Ultra catchy melody. Every song is a keeper. And the "Ambassador of Country Music" has never sounded better. If you have any interest in quality country gospel music this is for you.

Mitch Snow – Every Night You Make My Day $25

Mitch Snow – Let Me Be Everything to You $28

Two 21 track cds from a bloke we have never heard of and every track a winner. These have been run by the two harshest critics I have ever encountered. First is the Swedish Cowboy who will review a cd and tell you the artist hit a dud note 2minutes 25seconds into track 5. He said "Unbelievable! This is the second 21 track CD by this artist issued in 2008! As far as I can see all the songs are originals, and they are all happy go lucky nice real country songs. There are no rock drummers or pop guitarists in sight. This is just as good as his earlier album. At 21 trax and 63 minutes of music this is great value for money". The other is my good mate Russell who simply said "Magic". A slight correction to the cowboy's review, most of the songs are by the aforementioned Roy G "Jack" Ownby. Despite Jack authoring the Hank Snow biography I can't find reference to Mitch being related to Hank, as you'd expect to find in any bio notes, although reference is made to his father, Jim, so you never know. Vocally he reminds a little of Marty Haggard with a Frizzell style nuance or two. There is great variety and his voice is a pure country instrument. Songs are of the highest calibre. On the first cd "Tequila Bay" has a Tex Mex feel. "Love Might be the Death of Me" would be the ideal instrument for the likes of George Strait though it would be hard to improve on the version here. "Where Are You Spending Your Nights These Days" has a great play on words. The second cd is equally as good. "George Jones Will You Sing My Song" is a plea to the great man to sing his song in the hope his gal will hear it and return. "She's Ugly" is a very politically incorrect ditty. "When in Texas" is a call to follow the local traditions when in Texas. I would suggest a true country music fan would love both.

Leona Williams – "New Patches" $30 Justin Trevino again joins forces with the still lovely Leona to produce another gem. The Texas "A" team is there; Jake Hooker on bass, Dicky Overby on steel guitar, T Jarrod Bonta on piano and a couple of relative newbies in Billy Johnson on lead guitar and Drew Covington on fiddle. Liner notes by George Jones describe her as "the greatest female country singer who has ever stepped up to a microphone". No false modesty and why should there be. She also writes and interestingly "He's Just On my Mind Again" has been written by Leona, Justin and Leona's talented son Ron Williams. It reminds very much of "He Thinks I Still Care". "Old George" is a tribute to George Jones and was written by Leona's late husband Dave "Is Anybody Going to San Antone" Kirby. With such good originals it is hard to reconcile her recording "I Can't Help It If I'm Still in love With You", but that aside the songs are uniformly excellent (not that "I Can't Help It" isn't, it is just that we have heard it a few times already! And 6 songs written or co-written by Leona are of such a standard you would suggest she needs no outside songs.

*Leona's other new album "Leona Williams Sings Haggard" $30

David Frizzell – This is Our Time cd/dvd $30 This will be in next week or so. Participants (all duetting with David) are:

1. Wedding Dress for Sale (Crystal Gayle)
2. Nobody's Darling But Mine (Jeannie Seely)
3. Something 'bout You (Lacy J Dalton)
4. Could It Be We Fell in Love Tonight (Helen Cornelius)
5. Why Wasn't It Me (Amy Clawson)
6. Warm Spanish Wine (Johnny Rodriguez)
7. If You Got the Money etc (Merle Haggard)
8. Long Black Veil (Gene Watson)
9. Music, Where Did It Come from (Joe Stampley)
10. Got to Get to Louisiana (T Graham Brown)
11. Cowboy Hat (Bobby Bare)
12. You Can't Love Her (Johnny Lee)
13. Three Minutes (Allen Frizzell)
14. Ordinary Joe (Jimmy Fortune...ex Statler Brothers)
15. Reckless Wind (John Cowan)

In addition all feature on the track This Is Our Time. Looks good.

Bottom Dwellers – "Think I Need a Drink" $28 Californian country is often an overlooked thing which is a shame. The Bottom Dwellers are a great honky tonk group with a nice sound. They have something unusual as they have a slap bassist who does Fred Maddox double slap style runs throughout but they have no rockabilly influences except maybe on "Albacore" though the tex mex flavoured "Paso Robles" is also a little that way inclined. "Cheesy Chips" is a Morricone flavoured ditty (replete with whistling and a musical saw courtesy of Bob Armstrong of R Crumb and Cheap Suit Serenaders fame....he also played on the soundtrack of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and is also featured on "Wet Suit"). Lots of variety with even a bluegrass feel on "Uncle Jesus".

Earl Brewer – "Standing Up for Country" $30 Great name for a honky tonker and explores the great themes, jukeboxes, George Jones and imbibing. "Bottom of the Bottle" is not the Porter Wagoner song but is great nonetheless...a few Haggard nuances noticeable on this. A classic. It appears the songs are all original and certainly those with a honky tonk theme are the best. Personally I find it a tad boring when a song tries to deal with "how country" the singer is but apart from a couple of such inclusions it is top drawer.

Josh Brown – "Josh Brown" $28 If it were the early nineties Josh would have been a major label artist. He owes a little to George Strait, especially on "Lot of Things Love Can Do" and "Tequila Tonight" and would suggest a must for Strait fans, though "She Drove me to Drinking" may be a perhaps too politically incorrect title for 2008 Strait.

Durwood Haddock "I Done the Boogie Too Long" $28 Durwood is a bit of a one man band who plays all the fiddles, guitars, drums etc but we assume not all at once. Nice conversational stuff a la Arkey Blue, especially reminiscent on "Newest Thing in Nightlife". All songs by Durwood except a version of "Burning Bridges" and a brassed up version (a la "Ring of Fire") of "Wabash Cannonball". "Soft & Warm" has also been covered by Vernon Oxford. Anyone from Telephone, Texas is alright by me.

Geary Hanley "Nashville". $28 Rather amateurish package but content is fine. Looking like the ultimate pretty boy this is great honky tonk. The music dates from the 80s where his entries into the charts were reserved for the lower portions thereof. His style is reminiscent of Moe Bandy in places. "That's a Lot of Lovin' for $1.69" ages the album as that is the price he pays for the six pack which is incidentally sold by the lady with whom he has his little fling. "Go Ahead and Love Her, I Did" is also very reminiscent and like all songs on the album was written by one Peter Richardson. 16 tracks all of which have that indefinable quality that is classic honky tonk music.

Johnston, Kevin Best of $30 someone asked me about this and I apologise for not remembering who. This is a German release of 20 tracks and 78 minute duration. Some of the songs will be known but many won't as it avoids some of the songs that were played on radio here. One of our best.

Luke McDaniel is Jeff Daniels – Mississippi Honky Tonk Rockabilly Man $32 It wasn't unusual for artists to have "2 names" so to speak. One would be their actual name and the other would be the one they would employ when they recorded that "devil's music" otherwise known as rock and roll. Jimmy Lodgson recorded as Jimmy Lloyd (Bear Family release), George Jones was "Thumper Jones" and Buck Owens was Corky Jones. Similarly Luke McDaniel who recorded for labels such as King and Trumpet (where he recorded among other things a tribute to Hank Williams) used the alias Jeff Daniels and cut a number of rockabilly sides, two of which ("Switch Blade Sam" and "Daddy-O Rock"...how Mynard G Krebber-ish is that??) are considered among the greatest rockabilly sides ever cut. "Both" even did some recordings for Sun Records. So this whopping 34 tracker includes Luke McDaniel's hillbilly offerings and Jeff Daniels rockabilly. Luke McDaniel's material always hinted at rockabilly ("Whoa Boy") and as Jeff Daniels he took it one step further. 4 Luke McDaniel tracks are previously unissued.

Darrell McCall – "Lily Dale" $30 A reissue of Darrell's classic CBS album which featured classics after classic and also a classic duet with Willie Nelson on the title song, which was a rare ballad for its originator Bob Wills. It also includes the version of "Dreams of a Dreamer" which is right up there with the latter Gene Watson version. Great singer and a true classic album which is only otherwise available on the lengthy Bear Family box set.

Mickey Newbury

Unfortunately we never received the dvd...maybe later. Shall we say (politely) the family distribution is a tad unreliable. We do have copies of:

 Lulled by the Moonlight $32

 Live in England $32

 It Might As Well be the Moon $35 (2cds).

Jerry Wallace "Best Of Jerry Wallace Country" $30. The first collection to focus on his country recordings. For good measure it includes his pop hit, "In the Misty Moonlight" and 15 other tracks, of which the biggest hit was "If You Leave Me Tonight I'll Cry" a country number one which was from a Rod Serling television series. A smooth country-politan artist he also had big hits with "Do You Know What It's Like to Be Lonesome" and "Don't Give Up On Me". Jerry passed away recently as did that great Texas honky tonker, Charlie Walker ("Greatest Honky Tonk Hits" $30) and before that the Tall Texan Billy Walker ("Columbia Hits" $30)

Earl Scruggs Revue "Anniversary Special Volume 1 & 2" $32. BGO issue of the albums which celebrated Earl's 25th Anniversary with CBS. After the success of "Will the Circle be Unbroken" it was decided to promote Earl to a younger audience so joining with sons, Gary, Randy & Steve, he went the country rock way and produced some excellent albums a la Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. The Anniversary albums featured an array of guests including Joan Baez, Johnny Cash, Roger McGuinn etc and was produced by Bob Dylan's producer Bob Johnston. The results were very good and were helped by the wide range of the material from Loudon Wainwright III's "Swimming Song" through to Pointer Sisters excellent "Fairytale" as well as group originals. Certainly Earl's longer hair was a bit removed from the usual but the outcome was worth it, and the albums were certainly an influence on the newgrass movement.

Golden Ages of American Rock & Roll Folk Hits $32 28 track UK cd with Rooftop Singers through Kingston Trio, through Serendipity Singers and of course Pete Seeger's "Little Boxes".

Springfields – "On an Island Of Dreams" 2 cds 47 track on RPM (UK) featuring all albums and singles of the English folk pop group which of course included Dusty Springfield. Many people recorded it but no one did "Silver Threads & Golden Needles" better.

Ricky Skaggs – "The High Notes" $32 This is only available in the Crackerbarrel store in the USA as is the excellent "Songs of the Year" cd. Ricky was a bluegrass prodigy who appeared as a little white haired boy on the Flatt & Scruggs show and became a staple in the bluegrass field, recording and performing in a number of areas. In the 80s he began to perform mainstream country, similarly to the way the Oak Ridge Boys broke out of the gospel field. They both maintained their influences but met with great success. Skaggs had a swag of hits and now he has gone back to re-do 12 of them in a mainstream bluegrass style including his cover of Albert Lee's "Country Boy", which allows for some excellent picking. Rodney Crowell's "Heartbroke" employs a drummer but the breakneck dobro takes the place of steel guitar. "Honey, Let me Open the Door" is little different to the country version except for the bluegrass harmonies. "Cat's in the Cradle" is given a textured treatment and is obviously a labour of love as it was the least successful chart hit for Ricky, who is busier than ever with his own label (Skaggs Family) and other projects to keep him busy. He didn't have to change much to go back to the bluegrass versions but they certainly do sound fresh.

Danny O'Keefe – "In Time" $30 New 2008 album featuring 12 new recordings. The First Time/ Maybe next Time/ Siamese Friends/ Alone in the Dark/ When You Come Back Down/ Missing Me/ (We're All) Strangers Here/ Unspoken/ Back in Time/ Sleep (Anywhere on Earth You Are)/Last Call/ Bedtime Story.

Jim Stringer and the AM Band – Triskaidekaphilia $28 The title means "love of the number 13" and there are 13 tracks. Stringer is of course a Texas guitar wiz who is mostly renowned for his driving rockabilly/hillbilly style. This covers a much greater range than we thought may be possible with waltzes, shuffles, ballads and instrumentals of which "Rebel Rouser" was also the first song he ever performed in public.

Hank Thompson – “Treasures – Unreleased 50 s recordings by Hank Thompson & the Brazos Valley Boys” 28 Back in stock is this excellent 20 track cd that was largely recorded in Hank’s home studio. Nice sound and great performances. All bar a few tracks are Hank originals.

DVD Marty Robbins – Legendary Performances $30 Put out by the Country Music Hall of Fame and featuring 15 songs plus extras, one being his induction into the Hall of Fame and the other being a lengthy interview which is very good. Marty was an extremely charismatic and vibrant type who looked well. I say that as he passed away December 1982 less than 2 months after his Hall of Fame induction.

DVD Tammy Wynette – Legendary Performances $30 Also has 15 songs including 4 duets with George Jones, including the classic “Golden Ring”. Extras include an interview, Hall of Fame induction and her wedding to George Richey.

DVD Johnny Cash – Christmas Special 1976 $30

Johnny Cash – Christmas Special 1977 $30 ’

 Due soon are the 1978 & 1979 Christmas Special versions of the Johnny Cash TV show. **

76 has Roy Clark, Tommy Cash, Barbara Mandrell and Merle Travis among its guest whilst 77 has the Statlers and the other artists who were on the Class of 55 project with Johnny, Carl Perkins, Roy Orbison and Jerry Lee Lewis.

Also new:

DVD Conway Twitty – Live $30 issued by the family and consisting of 15 songs recorded in 1992

Don’t think I have been tardy in the dvd stakes; there simply hasn’t been any.

Hank Williams III Collector’s edition $35 3cds in tin pack. His 3 albums in entirety except the second disc of “Straight to Hell” and believe me that is no great loss.

Petty Booka – “Tokyo Bluegrass Honeys” $32 Petty & sister Booka are back but there is more than bluegrass on this. They do the definite version of the only decent Grateful Dead song, “Friend of the Devil” as well as covers of Mungo Jerry’s “In the Summertime”, Richard Thompson’s “I Want to See the Bright Light Tonight” plus “Lost in Supermarket” by the Clash and close with the best version since Mrs Miller of “Down Town”. What an album!! The best 2 ukulele playing Japanese sisters living in Hawaii (where do you think the ukulele came from)

Latest releases Extra specials Bargain prices This section was brought about by necessity. Galston Country Music Festival is an annual event held on the outskirts of Sydney. It is a great festival. BUT, it always seems to rain on the day and this year was no exception. It was an appalling day (incidentally sandwiched between two absolutely magnificent spring days). Having taken a stall and naturally taken the liberty of bringing additional stock in anticipation of some commerce I was rather disappointed.

 I am on the lookout for some festivals/shows/markets around the place to set up occasionally. It doesn't have to be in Sydney so if anyone could make some suggestions I would be pleased**

Rarities

- Anderson, Bill Greatest Hits 18 track on Varese $35
Long deleted. This is the best single representation of Bill's work and has the hard to get original "Golden Guitar".
- Anderson, John Wild & Blue $28 now out of print again this is WB original of his best album.
- Atkins, Chet & Jerry Reed – Sneakin' Around $35 Recently deceased Jerry Reed's last album with Chet. Incidentally Jerry died on the same day as the great Killer Kowalski.
Jerry reprises his famous song "The Claw" and of course Killer was famed for "The Claw Hold". Ironic ain't it?
- Are You From Dixie Great Country Brother Teams of the 30s
$32 superb RCA compilation 18 tracks
20 pg book. Includes Delmores, Allen
Brothers, Monroes, Blue Sky Boys etc
- Ball, David David Ball $30 was recorded prior to
"Thinking problem" but never released which is a bit hard to fathom as it has a similar feel; bit of honky tonk, swing
etc. and all of a high standard.
- Barker, Aaron & Curtis Wayne "Straight from the Horse's Mouth" $35. Still sealed 1998 long out of print gem by two great songwriters. Highly recommended,
Bellamy Brothers Rebels Without a Clue $30 Their best with the superb title song, "Andy Griffith show" "The Courthouse" etc
- Best Of Bluegrass: Preachin', Prayin & Singin' $30 Great compilation on Mercury which is of course deleted. Features selection from Osbornes, Louvins and Stanleys but the highlight has to be Lowel IBlanchard's
"Jesus Hits Like The Atom Bomb"!!
- Boone, Larry One Way to Go $25 Great singer & writer, this has many ballads.
- Boone, Larry Swingin' Doors, Sawdust Floors $35
Second solo album & his best.
- Browne, Jann It Only Hurts When I Laugh $30 Her second on Curb features Albert Lee on lead guitar and Buddy Emmons on steel as well as Duane Eddy on 2 tracks.
- Campbell, Stacy Dean Ashes of an Old Love $25 Hard to get Caught in the Webb Tribute to Webb Pierce featuring a who's who. 21 tracks OOP $28
- Cryner, Bobbie Bobbie Cryner $35 The debut of the Great Bobbie Cryner is simply as good as it gets.
- Dalton, Lacy J Survivor $40 features her superb version of Guy Clark's "Old Friends" as well as the great "Hard Luck Ace" which mentions Waylon Jennings and Janis Joplin. Her best and that is really something.

Dalton, Lacy J Crazy Love $35 Includes the delightful "Little Boy Blue".

Dalton, Lacy J Lacy J $30 Hard to get Capitol album.

Dalton, Lacy J Chains on the Wind 1992 Capitol album produced by Jimmy Bowen. A steal $20

Dunn, Holly Blue Rose of Texas $22 Holly's first WB album contains a mix of upbeat songs "Are You Ever Gonna Love Me", "There Goes My Heart Again" as well as delightful ballads such as "If I'd Never Loved You"

Ethel & Shameless Hussies – Born to Run $35 (Kacey Jones)

Ford, Ernie Ernie Sings & Glen Picks (with Glen Campbell) $35. This featured just Glen & Ern and a bass guitarist. A fine collection of songs none better than Don Gibson's "Legend in My Time".

Ford, Tennessee Ern Capitol Collector's Series $35 have said it on many occasions this series was the best representation of an artist's work and as most are deleted it is a case of grab them when you can. Has 29 tracks including one of the biggest hits of the 50s in "Sixteen Tons" as well as his self-penned "Shotgun Boogie" but also includes duets with Kay Starr, Ella Mae Morse & even Betty Hutton as well as hard to find gems "River of No Return" & the best "Davy Crockett".

Freberg, Stan Capitol Collectors Series $35 21 tracks of his mostly vocal tracks as well as the "Dear John & Marsha" in which he implores the singer to make it more authentic...a little more husky in the ferlin....well I love it!

Frickie, Janie Labor of Love $30 Janie interprets the like of Steve Earle (his best ever song "My old Friend the Blues") and Katy Moffatt ("Walkin' on the Moon")

Frickie, Janie After Midnight $30 Her best albums are ironically the ones where she is billed as Janie "Frickie" (from Fricke).

Gosdin, Vern Alone $35 ballad driven follow up to "Chiselled in Stone" and almost as good. "Chiselled" had more variety but this more cry in your beer ballads.

Haggard, Merle Capitol Collectors Series $28 The single best representation of his work.

Haggard, Marty Borders & Boundaries $25 Only ever album from Merle's # 1 son. Some religious overtones & A+ singing.

Hardwick, Billy Jnr Too Country $30 This one sells and sells. He had one album & then seemingly vanished.

Hobbs, Becky All Keyed Up $35 her absolute gem with all songs written by Becky including the superb "Jones on the Jukebox"

House, James James House $30. Great MCA debut
Husky, Ferlin Capitol Collectors Series $35 The best cd of Ferlin & of course deleted.

Jansen, Frank You're a Phone Call I Need to Make $30
Great album on the Bob Grady label.
Sold heaps but now unavailable.

Jones, George Friends in High Places $30
Jones, George You Oughtta be Here With Me $30 Two of the last albums he recorded for Epic were also 2 of his best ever. The first, a duets album featured Randy Travis, Buck Owens, and Ricky Van Shelton but the highlights are his duet with Vern Gosdin on "All That We've Got Left" and "If I Could Bottle This Up" With Shelby Lynne. The second has arguably the best selection of songs George ever assembled on one album & the Roger Miller title song may be best.

Jones, George Wine Coloured Roses $60 very hard to Get on cd. Great duet with Patti Page On "You Never Looked That Good When You Were Mine".

Jones, George Live at Dancetown USA $60 Great 1965 show with superb sound. 26 track cd with Buddy Emmons on steel guitar.

Kane, Keiran Find My Way Home $38 The hard to find Atlantic album recorded after the O'Kanes split and before he formed the Dead Reckoning label.

Logan, Josh Somebody Paints the wall $70 Yeah, it is expensive but worth it. He is so uncannily like Mel Street and even includes a couple of Mel's songs.!

McCall, Darrell A Way to Survive $30 Out of print & features a duet with wife Mona and the great Buddy Emmons on steel. One of the best by one of the best.

McCarters The Gift $40 Great harmony singing sister trio

McCarters Better be Home Soon $25
McQuaig, Scott Scott McQuaig $30 Excellent George Strait inspired album

Mamas Hungry Eyes Tribute to Merle haggard $30 Major Label tribute with Jackson, Black, Randy Travis, Vince Gill etc .Grand!

Mensy, Tim Stone By Stone $30 Great singer with deep voice as well as being a top guitar player & writer, where he enjoys much success.

Miller, Roger Volume One:Country Tunesmith $38
Not many of his own hits but mainly the songs he wrote for others such as "Tall

Moffatt, Katy	Tall trees", Invitation to the Blues", "When Two Worlds Collide" 21 tracks Greatest Show on Earth $28 The rare original cover of one of the greatest female country-folk albums ever.
Montgomery, Melba	And Norma Jean First Ladies of country Music. 10 tracks by Melba and 12 by Norma Jean, not on her Omni cd. The Melba tracks include the Harlan Howard Classic "No Charge". Norma tracks also include the Harlan Howard gem "God May Forgive You But I Won't"

Nelson, Willie	The Promiseland $30
Newbury, Mickey	In a New Age $35
Owens, Buck	Act Naturally $45
Paycheck, Johnny	Survivor $30 His last album and very good indeed with Johnny at his evil honky tonk best.
Pennington, Ray/B Emmons	Swinging Our Way $38
Poe, Michelle	Just One of the Boys $45 Produced by James Stoud. 12 fine songs never rel.
Ragged But Right	Great Country String Bands of the 30s $30 Great RCA release with Riley Puckett, Gid Tanner, Prairie Ramblers JE Mainer etc. Wonderful sound.
Rig Rock Deluxe	A Musical Salute to the American Truck Driver $28 with Buck Owens, Junior Brown, Red Simpson, Steve Earle etc
Rodriguez, Johnny	Gracias $60 Capitol label!
Sahm, Doug	SDQ 98 $60 Doug's second best album disappeared when Watermelon went belly up soon after its release.

Scott, Jack	Capitol Collectors Series $35. Again this series represents his best work.
Seals, Dan	Rage On $25 The title track is the best Thing he ever did but the rest of the album is not shabby either.
Sears, Dawn	What a Woman Wants to Hear $28 1991 release. Great vocalist who was first to record several songs on this which later became hits for others.
Seely, jeannie	Greatest Hits on Monument $28
Shafer, Sanger D Whitey	So Good for So Long $40
Shafer, Sanger D Whitey	I Never Go around Mirrors $45
Simpson, Red	The Best of $35 Excellent 20 tracker of His original Capitol material...you got it now deleted.
Springfield, Bobby Lee	All Fired Up $30 Inc. "Hank Drank"
Staley, Karen	Wildest Dreams $28 1989 MCA album

Thompson, jeff	feat. "He Thinks He's James Dean". Jeff Thompson $50 Was going to be the first album for Arista country but never came out. More's the pity as he had a top deep voice and good songs including pre-Reba "Greatest Man I Never Knew".
Thornton, Marsha Tubb, Ernest	Maybe the Moon Will shine Tonight $35 Live 1965 $35 (Rhino) Long deleted & a real shame as the sound is fabulous. Troubadours include Cal Smith & Jack Greene.

Pretty quite on the Bear Family front; probably a world wide music trend. These are down to be here in a couple of weeks.

Again there will be no increase despite the Aussie dollars big falls against the Euro in the last month. Please order asap to make sure you get your fill!!

Texas Troubadours – “Instrumentals” $32 Whopping 36 tracks plus 4 Buddy Emmons tracks where he was backed by the boys. Includes Leon Rhodes on guitar.

Carl Mann – “Carl Rocks” $35 Great series. 35 tracks plus deluxe digipak presentation. Includes “Mona Lisa” and many other hits mainly on the Sun label. Last releases in the series include Screamin’ Jay Hawkins & Sleepy LaBeef

Bob Luman – “Bob Rocks” $35 There are no decent single cds of Bob Luman’s rockabilly/rock & roll recordings till now and this has 36 tracks from Liberty & Capitol including “Red Hot”, “Red Cadillac & a Black Mustache” etc. Even a couple of previously unissued tracks. Hot guitar James Burton or Roy Buchanan.

Johnny Burnette – “Johnny Rocks” $35 36 tracks inc. solo & best of the Rockabilly Trio. All remastered especially for this. 11 rare tracks are included. His Liberty tracks never sound better.

Skeets McDonald – “Heart Brakin’ Mama- Gonna Shake This Shack Tonight” $32 Skeets cut some sizzling rockabilly stuff notably the title track and “You Oughtta See Grandma Rock” as well as big hits like the upbeat “Don’t Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes”. 33 tks including unissued “Southland Boogie”.

Country Boys Dream $15 The third sampler for the year with “33 flashes from the archives of oblivion” A must at the price and a great picture of one man band Cousin Emmy on cover.

Hank Snow Reissues.

All have a mass of tracks and follow a theme. German caricature genius Reinhard Kleist who illustrated the fabulously politically incorrectly titled compilation “Shit Happens” though we like to say “Excrement Happens”. Unless you have all the Bear Family Snow box sets you will need this especially as Volume 3 ($390) is the source for many on these. All special digipaks.

- 1) Snow on the Tracks $35 32 railroad theme songs (sadly a bit late for Charlie)
- 2) Snow Under Western Skies $35 (31 western themed)
- 3) Snow in Hawaii $35 (28 Hawaiian themed..great cover)
- 4) Snow South of the Border $35 (33 spanish themed)

Thanks for reading. Hope to hear from you.
