Registered or express post available.

This may be a bold statement but I believe this is the best newsletter I have ever put out. There are Literally hundreds upon hundreds of great titles. If you would like to order from this newsletter you can email, phone or post an order. If phoning please feel free to call after hours From 8.00am up until 7.00pm is fine.

I have a couple of pieces of bad news. Firstly my dear mum, Rose Reid, passed away on February 23rd. Many knew her as she worked Wednesdays at the old Parramatta store from 1990-2000 and filled in when I went on buying trips. It has been a trying period but I can honestly say she loved her time in the shop especially meeting and talking to many fine people and was a keen music buff, something that has passed on through the genes.

Secondly, we lost a dear friend in Norm Pyne. Many who went to the Parramatta store would have seen a blind guy getting round with only a cane. My admiration for Norm was limitless. I never considered him handicapped in any way and he was always thankful for his independence. It is a sad irony of life that it is probably this independence which saw him involved in an horrific accident which cost him his life. But he wouldn't have changed anything. He did things we could only hope to have done and lived his life to the fullest. He will be missed but anyone who ever met Norm would be better for the experience.

Merle Haggard – "I Am What I Am" $25

Merle Haggard "Kern River/ Chill Factor" $30

Merle Haggard "Out Among the Stars/ A Friend in California" $30

There can be no question that Merle Haggard is the most popular country artist we carry. In fact daylight is second. It is also apparent that he continues to be a viable and as good as ever. "I've Seen It Go Away" is a superb opening song. He sings of all the things he has seen and experienced and reflects he has "Seen it go away". As much a confessional as you'd hear but what a superb song. Long time Strangers Norm Hamlett & Biff Adam still back Haggard and Scott Joss, a wonderful artist in his own right is the new "right hand" man playing guitar and fiddle and providing harmony vocals. "Oil Tanker Train" is one of the best train songs he has ever done. A nostalgic look at a train that provided a moment of stability in his self proclaimed "chequered past". "Live and Love Always" is the swing number in which Hag picks up his beloved fiddle and matches strides with the dexterous Joss. He even allows his wife Theresa a part of the lead. She does well as does his son, Ben, who (along with the great Reggie Young) provides much of the lead guitar. Freddy Powers' (who has written some great songs for Merle) provides the bluesy "The Road to My Heart" and has some nice piano from Doug Colosio. Hag seems totally at ease as he tells him, "Play it Dougie". "How Did You Find Me Here" is a wonderful confessional, a reflection on his relationship with his wife who lifted him out from the depths of depression. "Bad Actor", the only co-wrote with his group is another brilliant confessional "I have a problem of knowing what's real" he tells us in a reflective manner. As on most tracks there are few nice dobro runs from Rob Ickes. "Mexican Bands", rather unsurprisingly has the feel of a Mexican cantina. The title track concludes the album as Hag tells us all at what stage of life he is now in. A very simple track with Hag playing acoustic guitar it is a perfect conclusion to an album I had to press the play button again after it had gone through the first time. Wonderful!

In addition we get 2 x 2-fer reissues. Now, I may be out a little but I reckon if you go through all the Hag albums I have in this newsletter you are probably only missing 1 and that is "Amber Waves of Grain". "Kern River/Chill Factor" is a US issue whilst "Out among the Stars/ Friend in California" is from BGO label in the UK. The former has the dramatic "Kern River" title track followed by a superb version of Hugh Moffatt's wonderful "Old Flames Can't Hold a Candle to You" and a great mix of ballads permeated by the great "Big Butter and Egg Man", a top jazzy swing number. "Chill Factor" has perhaps his last charting number one in "Twinkle Twinkle Lucky Star", though the cowrite with Hank Cochran, "We Never Touch at All", may even have you thinking you were listening to George Jones.

"Out Among the Stars" had been almost impossible to get on cd and it has some great songs such as the Gordon Terry ballad "My Life's Been Grand" though Red Lane's "Tell Me Something About Tulsa" is even better as is his take on "Almost Persuaded". Hag's own "Bleachers" is a classic about life on the road and his swing number is a superb version of "Pennies from Heaven". Five songs on "Friend in California" come from the great Freddy Powers of which the highlight is the pseudo answer song "The Okie from Muskogee's Coming Home". Hard to believe these are 24 years old. They sound like "new". MAY IS UNOFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED "MERLE HAGGARD MONTH".

Georgette Jones "Slightly Used Woman" $30

12 tracks from the daughter of George Jones and Tammy Wynette shows she has it all! Spookily like her late mother this album has you wondering why she hasn't made an album before. "You and Me and Time" was on George Jones' "Gonna Burn Your Playhouse Down" and is also here where it is much more appropriate given her superb song "I Hope You Know", a sad song written by Georgette and sung for/to her mother. Play these 2 together and be unmoved...it is impossible. Most of this album was recorded in Texas under the direction of Justin Trevino with the great Amber Digby providing backing vocals. Jamie Lennon, who the notes tell us is Georgette's fiancé is terrific on steel guitar. The great Swedish Cowboy has been waxing lyrically over the shuffles "Second Time Around" and "You Don't Hear", a nice Tommy Cash song. She does great versions of 3 songs intrinsically associated with Tammy. The title cut is chilling, but is more than just a copy with Justin's great production touches. Glen Martin's epic search for hope on "I Still Believe in Fairy Tales" is handled wonderfully by Georgette. On the Nashville cuts a duet with Mark McGuinn, "Better a Painful Ending" is the type of song George & Tammy would have done. Mind you these two do it great justice. He tries to sound very Jones-ish and he succeeds. The only track I am not overly fond of (but I am warming to it) is a take on "The Race Is On". But it is grand overall and I hope there is another soon. I think any cynical opinion about the merits of this album as some novelty (prior to listening of course) will be well and truly eradicated on first listening. Great stuff. It must be the genes. You would not expect anything else.

Miss Leslie "Wrong Is what I Do Best" $30

Miss Leslie is as good as it gets. As on her previous album, that is the official Y & T album of the year (2008) she sings with the spirit and nuances of George Jones, the only female who could ever carry that off. Funny in the notes she thanks Jason Allen for being her "George Jones" on "Let's Start Over". To be honest she is the one like George!! What can you say except that it is as great as her previous. 14 new originals (13 by "Miss Leslie" Sloan and one by Hilary Sloan, assumably her sister) show she is certainly not experiencing any writer's block. These are as fine a selection of honky tonk songs as you'd ever hear. Classic irony in the title track. "Every Tuesday Night" is a classic honky tonker...set in a honky tonk! The tag at the end of that song is so Jones-ish it is amazing. She has actually improved her band this time round. Her husband, steel guitar player Ricky Davis shines especially in tandem with Bill Kirchen, the former Commander Cody man. Along with Miss Leslie (a fine fiddler) we have the three main soloists. "Some Things They Can't Take Away" is a classic tear jerker about hard times and the resolve to overcome them. Long time Miss Leslie fans will even notice how she almost smiles on the cover. On the back cover she is smiling....well she is smiling upside down anyway so that probably constitutes a frown. "She Gave Up on Herself" is a classic tale of a slide of a woman trying to keep her man. "The Last Time I Drank" is as good a honky tonk ballad as you'd ever hear, and it owes more than a passing debt to Stoney Edwards great "Two Dollar Toy" though with a more tragic consequence. PLEASE, try Miss Leslie if you haven't. If you don't like it you can exchange it for something else!

Justin Trevino & Amber Digby "Keeping Up Appearances"$30

It was a pleasure to see Justin and Amber when they played in Sydney some years ago. It was totally awesome to hear them do a couple of duets. Well the best news is that they have a new duet album, which was played over the phone to me and is currently in transit. It will be here when you receive this. All I can say is that as good as you would imagine this to be it actually exceeds expectations. It will be here when you get this; don't miss out on the pair who have so much talent and spirit.

Tracks are:

1. Keeping Up Appearances
2. Wish I Didn't Have To Miss You
3. Right Combination
4. That Makes Two Of Us
5. High As The Mountains
6. Lead Me On
7. Wrong Company
8. Just Between The Two of Us
9. Which One Is To Blame
10. Slowly But Surely
11. After The Fire Is Gone
12. Kickin' Our Hearts Around
13. How's The World Treating You
14. Flame In My Heart

Tony Booth – "Keys in the Mailbox/Lonesome 77-203" $30

Tony Booth started out as leader of the house band at the now defunct Palomino Club which was the home of country music in Los Angeles for many years. All the big names played there and Dwight Yoakam was just one of the many artists who got their start there. He had an engaging style, very much influenced by the west coast artists such as Buck and Haggard but also the likes of Ray Price. He was also a smart operator as seen by the fact he has licensed these two fine albums (which originally appeared on the Capitol label) for release on Heart of Texas label. I always think he looks a fine cut of a guy and is a great singer. He had his biggest hits with these 2, which are the title tracks on this two-fer. It will be here with the previous!

Kris Kristofferson – "Please Don't Tell Me How the Story Ends: The Publishing Demos 1968-72" $30

It may seem strange that I consider Kris one of my very favourite artists but I really only like his first 2 albums: "Kristofferson" (re-released as "Me and Bobby McGee") and "The Silver Tongued Devil & I". They featured some of the greatest songwriting ever. I can remember reading an article in Time magazine, circa 1970 extolling the virtue of Kristofferson as a singing poet and by jove they were right. I don't know why but he seemed to lose that ability even as early as his third album, "Border Lord" and I found some of his political stuff such as "Third World Warrior" to be downright painful. I'd even nominate "Me & Bobby McGee" as potentially the greatest song ever written. Who can forget that opening intro on the first album, "if it sounds country that's what it is, it's a country song". His drawl seemed to enhance the song. My mate Andy, the Terry-Hillbilly, fancies himself as a bit of a lyric writer and uses the melody of "Me and Bobby McGee" to test whether the lyric scans correctly. He figures if he can work it to the melody of "Me and Bobby McGee" then it is a goer. It is also a song that I thought no one could do an injustice to, though hearing a busker in Peel St, Tamworth on my last visit there proved that notion was wrong.

After that intro I can only say this album instantly puts it right next to (and on equal footing with) those first two pearls. Firstly, the book that accompanies this is something else; 60 pages and has stories from Dennis Hopper, Kinky Friedman, Merle Haggard as well as a very informative article by Michael Simmons. The demo recordings are of fine quality; some feature just Kris and his guitar whilst others a small group of musos. 16 tracks and none less than great. "Please Don't Tell Me How This Story Ends" was a 1970 hit for Ronnie Milsap but can't get within a mile of this unadorned version. "This Lady's Not For Sale" was only recorded by Rita Coolidge but the magic is in this demo version. Similarly the demo version of "Slow Down", which was recorded by Kris & Rita in duet form is infinitely better here. His association with Rita seemed to halt his creative juice somewhat (I think the word is "totally"). "Just the Other Side of Nowhere" was unusual. It should have deserved the lofty coverage of the "hits", but then we are the true aficionados after all! It is unusual to hear a totally stripped down version of "If You Don't Like Hank Williams". The song went through quite a few lyrical changes! This is the best! "Duvalier's Dream" should have been a movie. What a great line "Preferring strangers to the company of friends because strangers are so easily forgotten"...it may even rank just below "Freedom's just another word for nothing left to lose"

That is just a cursory rundown. Truly it is superb. If you have ever liked a single Kristofferson moment then this is for you.

Some facts: "Sunday Morning Coming Down" was first recorded by Ray Stevens, though Roy Drusky was the first to have a hit with a Kristofferson song ("Jody & the Kid). "Bobby McGee" was originally "Bobby McKee". "Epitaph (Black and Blue)" was written as a tribute to Janis Joplin whose posthumous hit of "Me and Bobby McGee" ensured Kris would never struggle again.

Wade Hayes "Place to Turn Around" $30

It is hard to believe it has been more 10 years since the last Wade Hayes album. He was one of the best artists of the 90s but for some inexplicable reason the label changed his last album before it was released, for one dropping his amazing version of "Wichita Lineman" from the mix. His deep voice and a great arrangement meant a lot of people would have bought it for that but instead the thing that came out was full of the crappiest "radio-friendly" fodder imaginable. I remember when the ill-fated 2SM country station was in Sydney and having a discussion with one of the management who told me a country fan supposedly wants to turn the radio on and be instantly familiar with what he/she hears. I think the results show I won that one. "She Knows Me" is one of 9 (of 11) great Wade Hayes tracks on this album. Superb delivery and that wonderful tag ("but she loves me anyway") has classic written all over it. Apart from the opener, "Good Day to Go Crazy" this album is wonderful. "Drinkin' Thing" was a hit for Gary Stewart, but Wade's deep voice works better for mine. His cowriters are all excellent folk of the ilk of Jerry Salley, Michael White (their "What's a Broken Heart to Do" is a beauty), Chick Rains and Jim McBride. There are a great bunch of musicians in support such as Larry Franklin, Brent Mason, Rob Hajacos and Bruce Bouton. Wade, you should have been a star. Welcome back!

David Ball & the Pioneer Playboys " Sparkle City" $30

Now firmly entrenched as an independent artist with an engaging style that is as good as ever. "Tulsa" is a lament of a guy chasing his dream "I hope LA's glad to see me, Tulsa Won't Even Know I've Gone". "Maybe Tomorrow" is when he will change his restless ways. "What'll I Do If I Don't Have You" sounds like a vintage George Strait song. "Hot Water Pipe" is an upbeat opener as is the catchy "Country Boy Boogie". "Back to Alabama" is a laid back ditty with a nice jazzy feel. "Houston Again" has a nice accordion accompaniment as he sings about the place he doesn't want to go to again. David Ball is a great artist. His songs get better with each play. "So long" is an appropriate closer about a relationship he hopes to renew. He is a great lyric stylist. His style is very appealing!

Flatt & Scruggs TV Show Vols 9 & 10 DVDS special price $25 ea.

These are the latest in this excellent series with 2 shows on each. Volume 9 has special guest Stringbean; very hard to get footage of the man who sadly was murdered on the way home from the Grand Ol Opry. Each features their great live commercials for Martha White Flour. Flatt is an engaging highly personable compere and Earl is wonderful throughout as are the likes of Josh Graves, Paul Warren and Curly Seckler who are members of their band.

Ray Sanders – "Funny How Time Slips Away"$30

Hillside Records have made a great comeback with this following up some excellent releases from last year. This 20 track cd by Ray Sanders features a mix of vintage and new recordings. Ray is bit of a musical chameleon with a strong resemblance to Darrell McCall on some tracks, especially a great version of "Crazy Arms" which has some spectacular piano from Pig Robbins. Sanders' originals are very good as well. "Old Yellow Rose" has a great country theme of a gal who finds an old yellow rose in the bible. It was given to her by her ex before it all fell apart. "He Didn't Become Famous For His Song" is perhaps his best. Very Cal Smith-ish in style. But then again "Heart Full of Hurtin'" is a tale of woman who turns the table on her cheating spouse. Great on the shuffles of which "Lonelyville" has a great chorus. Harlan Howard's "Out of a Honky Tonk" is right up there with the great Charlie Walker. Steel is played by either Buddy Emmons, Sonny Garrish or Lloyd Green. This is a cd where you just can't lose.

Brian Burns "American Junkyard" $30 Texas guy's 6th album, all featuring (mainly) his original songs. He does a fine version of the Amazing Rhythm Aces "The end is Not In Sight" His originals have a distinctly Texas feel about them and he has guaranteed appeal to fans of the likes of Tom Russell & Dave Alvin.

Reissue Central. Classics back in and newly arrived.

Reissue of the Month

*Marty Robbins – “Have I Told You Lately That I Love You/ I’ve Got a Woman’s Love” $30 2 albums making their first appearance on cd anywhere. It is gonna be an epic and around $420 (to be confirmed) but almost a life changing event.

2. Big Bopper – Hello Baby, you Know what I Like $32 the most complete Big Bopper package with 31 tracks (including several tributes) to the man who took Waylon Jennings' place on that ill fated flight. Includes 52 page book.

3. Eddie Cochran – "Rocks" $35 Latest offering in the series with 35 tracks. 40 page booklet.

Legendary 1974 meeting between the folk and bluegrass hall of famers.

Recent Releases:

*Buck Owens – Open Up Your Heart 7 cds + 120pg hard cover book. The second volume in Bear Family's continuing Buck Owens reissue series includes everything recorded between 1965 and 1968 and also includes the Buckaroos albums. It was Buck Owens who had personally organised with Bear Family to reissue his complete works as only they can. This was Buck's most successful period with all singles going to number 1 on the charts. They include gems such as "Waiting in Your Welfare Line", "Sam's Place", "Open Up Your Heart" as well as the theme song "Buckaroo". All up has 249 tracks with a running time of around 7 ½ hours. $270

*A Girl Named Johnny Cash and Other Tribute Songs $32 This is a classic case of one that may have been missed but when you find out about it, it will be a must have. Basically it is a series of tribute songs sung by well known artists to other artists. It takes its title from Jane Morgan's "A Boy Named Sue" answer song... "A Girl Named Johnny Cash", which considering she wasn't a country singer was just great. What makes it a must have though are 10 songs by Stoney Edwards, one of the greatest country vocalists ever and 9 of these are seeing their first release on this cd. He of course was responsible for the wondrous "Hank & Left Raised My Country Soul" but the other 9 are just as good. They were recorded at a 1973 session and included the likes of Grady Martin, Weldon Myrick, Tommy Jackson, Lloyd Green, Charlie McCoy, Hargus "Pig" Robbins etc. In addition there are guests, eg on "The Night Ernest Tubb Show Came to Town" ET's guitarist Billy Byrd is a guest; on "The Carter Family" Mother Maybelle plays autoharp; on "Roy Acuff King of Country Music" we get guest appearances from both Jimmie Riddle and Howdy Forrester; "Bob Wills, The Fiddlin' Man" features both Tommy Jackson & Leon McAuliffe. As wonderful as these are, there are no duds among the 18 tracks. Hag's Tommy Collins tribute, "Leonard" is indeed one of Merle's best ever, and Rudy Thacker's little known "Ballad of Johnny Horton" is indeed a joy.

*Carl Smith "Hey Joe" $32 Great 34 tracker of the Columbia recordings of Carl Smith, who was married to June Carter and was father of Carlene Carter. It includes the hard to get "Time's a Wastin'", a duet with June which was featured in the movie "Walk the Line", but this is the original!! Sadly Carl recently passed and this great cd is a fitting reminder of his greatness.

*Jimmy Edwards "Love Bug Crawl" $32 Can't beat this from the Terry Hillbilly. "Funny you should make that reference to the English Jimmy Edwards. As a kid in 1958 I was a fan of Freberg, Charlie Drake, Cribbins, Goons, etc and bought the Mercury 45 from Ashwoods for about 1/6, fully expecting Pommy Jimmy's antics and bombast. Imagine my delight and surprise when I got top quality rock'n'roll bordering on rockabilly! Odd thing is that my Mum and Dad who both hated rock'n'roll actually loved this bloke (especially the flipside, /Honey Lovin'/). They also dug Elvis but pretty well no one else from the era...odd how these blokes slipped through their highly critical net. I have been waiting since then to get more and this is a gem"

* Jack Elliott "At Lansdowne Studios London" $32 Seemingly these 1960 recordings were before he was officially titled "Ramblin'" Jack! 33 tracks which date from 1959 and 1960 and feature 7 unreleased tracks. He does some great Woody Guthrie songs as you may expect and also some western flavoured songs.

* Rudy Grayzell Let's Get Wild" $32 32 tracks with some of the wildest rockabilly you would here.

* Johnny Horton "Ballads of Johnny Horton" $32 25 tracks which starts in 1951 and ends in 1960. A classic selection which is an ideal companion to both "Rockin' & Rollin' Johnny Horton" and "Take me as I am: Gonna Shake This Shack Tonight" (a must).

* Smiley Lewis "Rocks" $35 The man who defined New Orleans rock and roll better than just about anyone apart from Fats Domino, but Fats recorded many of Smiley's songs and don't forget Dave Edmunds' successfully revived his "I Hear You Knockin'". 36 tracks.

* The Treniers Rock $35 The Treniers were with James Brown and Michael Jackson perhaps the greatest singer/dancers of the rock and roll era. They also had some highly memorable upbeat rock and roll. 32 examples are found here. Great upbeat stuff!

* "Sven A Kirsten "The Sound of Tiki" $32 The hi fi nuts of the 50s (and beyond!) got their rocks off on the likes of Martin Denny, Les Baxter, Arthur Lyman and all are represented on this. 17 tracks. Great Bear Family sound.

* "Smoke That Cigarette: Pleasure to Burn" $32 32 mainly country tracks which deal with the now taboo subject of cigarette smoking. $35 Great sound and great illustrated book. Includes a couple of odd ones such as Slim Dusty "Sad Cigarette" and Wilf Carter "What Cigarette Is Best". 32 tracks including 2 early 50s advertisements. Nice. Cough!!

* DVDS

Town Hall Party March 28, 1959 $35 30 tracks with guests including The Collins Kids, Leon McAuliffe, Faron Young, Skeets McDonald, Tex Ritter etc. Great package and very rare footage.

Town Hall Party July 25th and August 15 1959 $35 39 tracks with Merle Travis, Billy Mize, Gene Vincent, Martha Carson, The Rockin' Hawaiians, Jimmy Pruett (a blind multi-instrumentalist...usually harmonica or piano and when I say "steals the show" it ain't no bull!!), Roy Lanham, Tex Ritter (Tex's family actually own the rights to this series) etc

Town Hall Party August 29 and September 5 1959 $35 30 tracks including Tex Williams, Freddie Hart, Bob Luman, Skeets McDonald etc.

Other Recent Bear Family Releases in Stock

The Browns – A Country Music Odyssey $32 Great sound; I have said many times the Browns' "The Three Bells" box is the best one I have heard on Bear Family. But this 36 tracker with a huge set of notes is the ideal answer if you don't want to shell out $270 for the box!

Bob Luman "Rocks" 36 tracks $35

Jack Scott "Rocks" 26 tracks $35 Great singer and the great things is it doesn't duplicate the other Jack Scott cds I have listed in this newsletter.

Sons of the Pioneers and Roy Rogers (King of the Cowboys) Complete Recordings 1934 to 1943 6 cd + 160 page book $240 182 tracks which collect all the STUDIO recordings of both the Original Sons of the Pioneers and then when he went solo the recordings of Roy Rogers. Clocks in around 8 ½ hours. Of the 182 songs 52 are previously unissued recordings. All the original Sons of the Pioneers classics are here including "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" "Roving Cowboy" "Cool Water" along with all the Farr Brothers classic instrumentals. Roy's first solo turn was "Cowboy Night Herd Song" and includes the other gems such as "Black Sheep Blues" and "Hadie Brown" (what a yodeller!) and even has some early Christmas songs. They co-existed for quite a while but over the years the sheer power and magic of these original recordings could not be emulated. Each song is written about by Doug Green of Riders in the Sky, one of the foremost western song authorities. Spectacularly necessary and 10 years in the making.

George Jones Walk Through This World With Me 5 cds + book $180 MUSICOR BOX #1 This first of two Musicor label boxes. This features 142 songs plus 2 sessions as George, the producers and the musicians run through various takes of "Love Bug", "Along Came You" and "I Made Her That Way". What makes these sets so great is many fold but initially most have not been on cd before. There are 12 duets with the fabulous Melba Montgomery, one of the best vocalists in country music history and to many sadly unknown. There are ballads, uptempo numbers, gospel, great covers and originals. George was of course more of a writer than he was in later times and was able to supplement his own efforts with the best Nashville written material. Classic songs abound such as "Even the Bad Times Are Good", "My Favorite Lies", of course the title song and variants such as a country cover of the Eddie Fontaine rockabilly classic "Nothing Shakin' But the leaves on the Trees". Includes 10 previously unreleased songs. Quality musicians such as Bob Moore and Lloyd Green provide superb backing. Not to be missed.

George Jones Good Year for the Roses 4cds + book $150. MUSICOR BOX #2 The second box is named after perhaps the second best song George ever recorded (assuming every one would go for "He Stopped Loving Her Today" as number one). This has 131 tracks including 20 previously unreleased songs. It includes duets with Johnny Paycheck ("Your Angel Steps Out of Heaven"), some with Brenda Carter (including the original version of "Milwaukee Here I Come" which was covered by John Prine on "In Spite of Ourselves") and the first 6 recordings with Tammy Wynette. It includes track after track of classics such as "Even the Loser Likes to Dream", great word plays such a "I Don't Have Sense Enough (to Come in Out of the Pain)", a surprising number of covers of songs associated with other country greats ("Saginaw Michigan", "Hello Darlin" and "even "Okie from Muskogee") plus tales of lost love and the barroom ("Heartaches or Hangovers", "Divorce or Destroy" etc). George may have had more success in a few more years from these but these are as fine a bunch of recordings that he ever did and whilst I may be going against popular opinion I may even suggest the title song as his finest ever recording. Regardless these 2 box sets are absolute must haves!!

The fact the rest of the album is nothing less than great makes this a must have. Trivia: Martin's real name is Mike Martin and he is a professional tennis coat. We still await his third album.

Paycheck, Johnny	The Real Mr Heartache: The Little Darlin' Years $55 Country Music Foundation with Paycheck at his best. I love George Jones but his Epic label gems owe more than a passing nod to this. 24 tracks.
Paycheck, Johnny	Mr Hag Told my Story $70 So hard to find. Was on cd for about 5 minutes. This is Paycheck singing in the classic style of the above. All songs are by Haggard who joins Paycheck on 3 duets. What is doubly great is that none of the 10 tracks are the common Haggard songs. By the way Amazon has 3 listed from 100 to 115 bucks. This is 100% mint!!

Price, Ray	Sometimes a Rose $25 great 90s album
Price, Ray	Heart of Country Music $45 Step One label releases are so good. Ray works with a very sympathetic producer in Ray Pennington and a crack team of musos
	On this Ray does 20 country classics with largely acoustic backing. Interesting that on my Nashville trip last year I met Ray Waddell who is doing a biography on Ray Price and I told him how much I liked this and he told me it was also Ray's

	favourite of all the albums he had done. Nothing is better than Ray's version of "Is Anybody Going to San Antone".
Price, Ray	Portrait of a Singer Step One $40 Another gem on Step One which also came out as a double lp. Here Ray nails 20 pop and country songs, including some Sinatra classics in "All the Way" and "Young at Heart". A stunner.
Price, Ray	Hall of Fame Series $40 Another Step One gem which doesn't really relate to the Hall of Fame as I can see but 13 great songs and the likes of Buddy Emmons & Rob Hajacos see a little swing in the mix.
Price, Ray	Just Enough Love $35 Step One Ray starts with "Wind Beneath My Wings" and it gets better from there. He actually makes it palatable!! But Harlan Howard's "Better Class of Losers" is definitely of greater comfort! 12 tks.
Pruett, Jeanne	Satin Sheets: Greatest Hits $40 Very hard to get (note Amazon price US114 to 242)
Randall, Jon	Cold Coffee Morning $45 This never made it to release. We have an advance with front and rear graphics but no notes. The strange thing is that Randall has had 3-4 albums that did make it to the street and none are within a mile of this gem. He does one duet with then wife Lorrie Morgan and does a duet with Willie Nelson on the fabulous "Reno & Me" & is joined on the chorus by his ex boss Emmylou Harris. Stunningly good.

Sears, Dawn	What a Woman Wants to Hear $25

Shafer, Sanger D "Whitey"	WB 1990 album Great traditional feel. So Good for So Long $38 Seeing he was the main collaborator with Lefty Frizzell it is not surprising how much vocally he sounds like Lefty. 15 tracks including "I Never Go Around Mirrors", "That's the Way Love Goes" and the fabulous honky tonk of "Heaven Was a Drink of Wine".
Shaver, Billy Joe	Salt of the Earth $30

	$25. The album he had just finished when he died. One of the greatest ever country vocalists. Deep rich voice with his own nuances. Pity the wonderful honky tonk songs were lived out so tragically with his alcohol overdose.
Whitley, Keith	Kentucky Bluebird $30
Whitley, Keith	Tribute Album $25 inc. Alan Jackson,
	Mark Chesnutt & unissued tracks from

	Ray Pennington took over on that track.
	See if you can pick it. Buddy Emmons on

2. The Midnighters – Complete (Songs of Love Rhythm & Psychedelia) Nice 4 cd set, each in trifold cover plus fold out info sheet. Garage rock. 79 tracks.

h) Proper Box Sets Country These are great box sets out of the UK. They are all no longer available. They are very compact boxes 5" x 5" (that's approx 13cm x 13cm) and fit very nicely on the shelves and look great. All are new and sealed. They all come with a great and comprehensive book, typically 48 pages or so. All are $35 4 cd/book/box!!!

1. Roy Acuff – King of Country Music 100 tracks and 40 page book. His original group was one of the best and that is what is here with great musicians such as Clell Sumney (Cousin Jody) who was in turn replaced with the great Beecher "Pete" Kirby aka Bashful Brother Oswald.
2. Bluegrass Bonanza (see in "f" boxes above) Exactly the same but sealed and more compact.
3. Milton Brown & His Musical Brownies - Daddy of Western Swing 106 tracks.
4. Carter Family – Country Folk 103 tracks.
5. Red Foley – Hillbilly Fever 100 tracks
6. Lefty Frizzell – Give Me More More More 86 tracks
7. Woody Guthrie – Some Folk 100 tracks (it is folk but country too!)
8. Bill Haley – From Western Swing to Rock 94 tracks. Bill was a stunning yodeller and that is featured on cd #1.

9. Hillbilly Boogie 100 tracks each with the word boogie in the title. Pre rockabilly, pre rock and roll but don't they swing. Whilst the likes of Tennessee Ernie are well and there is simply nothing better in history than "Shotgun Boogie" I love the relative unknowns such as Hank Harral with "Dreamband Boogie"...a boogie version of a similar lyric to "Hillbilly Heaven". One of my favourite boxes.
10. Hoosier Hot Shots "Everybody Stomp" 100 tracks 36 page book. Like a country version of Spike Jones almost! They do swing!!
11. Louisiana Hayride 111 tracks and 68 page book. From Bailes Brothers to Moon Mullican to Merle Kilgore. A stunner.
12. Charlie Poole – The Essential 80 tracks and 24 page book. Could have been bigger than the Carter Family except he only sang so he could afford to make moonshine. True. And great stuff all the way.
13. Rockabilly 120 tracks including Elvis' Sun recordings. Also includes George Jones (as Thumper Jones) doing "Rock It". Fabulous one.
14. Steelin' It – The Steel Guitar Story 100 tracks 56 page book. The first cd shows the influence of Hawaii on the sound and the rest feature classic western swing and country featuring the greats such as Herb Remington, Leon McAuliffe, Little Roy Wiggins etc, mainly in a backing capacity but also some instrumentals. Great set. Lots of variety.
15. Stompin' Singers and Western Swingers 94 tracks and 52 pg book. A stunning cross section of western swing. Many rarities too!!
16. Ernest Tubb – The Texas Troubadour 100 tracks + 48 page booklet. One of the greatest and the classics are none better than these/
17. We'e Gonna Rock we're Gonna Roll 118 tracks. Which examines how rock and roll developed from blues and rhythm, jump blues, hillbilly bop (that is why it is here) plus songs which can lay claim to being the first rock and roll.
18. Bob Wills and The Texas Playboys – Take Me Back to Tulsa 109 tracks, same as in section f above but this is more compact and sealed.

i) Proper Box Sets Non Country (all $35)

- 2) Good News 100 Gospel Greats plus 48 page book. This is a stunning collection of black gospel music.
- 3) Hitting on All Six- A History of Jazz Guitar 94 tracks 52 page book From Eddie Lang, through Charlie Christian to Les Paul and of course many many more.
- 4) Howlin' Wolf – Best of 1951-1958 3cds + dvd 60 tracks + dvd + 24 page book. They were all pussies compared to the Wolf.

i) Odd shaped non country boxes.

1. 160 Original One Hit Wonders and Hard to Get Hits. This is same size as Proper box (above) and has 8 cds totalling 160 tracks. I have a copy myself and love it. All the original recordings and not the things you see elsewhere. Suffice to say if you go for these type of things you will love this and then some $55

NOTE: A lot of people seem to be unfamiliar with Keith Whitley, so briefly he died in 1989 as a result of alcohol abuse. When he died he had a blood alcohol reading of .49. He was married to Lorrie Morgan at the time. And he had on of the greatest voices you would ever hear. Think of all the greats: Haggard, Jones, Jennings, Gosdin, Chesnutt....Whitley was at least as good, and I strongly emphasise "at least". Wonderful.

BOOKS

Books are great, but quite heavy to post. These are mainly not available in Australia. Unfortunately we can't order books in, but look closely. There are some gems here. Each will have 4 things in brackets; 1)H or S (hard back or softback) 2) Dimensions (in inches!) 3)Number of pages 4) Year so (H/12x7/124/98 means a hard cover L12 x W7 inches and 124pages published 1998)

LATE ADDITION !!!!! 1 copy This is an advance of the Eileen Fisk biography due for release in August 2010. Despite his standing as one of country music greats he was a very troubled man, some may even say a low down dirty rat (perhaps an Edward G Robison quote?) but Sisk pulls no punches at all and in fact paints Buck in a very bad light as a penny pincher who didn't care who he walked over and was responsible for acts of low down meanness of the highest order. This is a paper back with 308 pages...all text. The book on't be out till August as I said $25.

1. "Almost Like a Song: Ronnie Milsap" with Tom Carter (H/9x6 259/1990)
$18 From abject poverty to country music superstardom whilst overcoming a severe handicap. Very inspiring.
2. "Always Been There: Rosanne Cash, The List & the Spirit of Southern Music" by Michael Stressguth (H/9x6/223/2009) $22 Good read about Rosanne and her acceptance and at same time resentment of Johnny Csh as someone who was owned by the world. It also focuses on the famous "list" that Johnny Cash gave her when she was starting, the list of songs she should listen to and maybe record.
3. "Anchored in Love: The Life & Legacy of June Carter Cash" by John Carter Cash (S/9x6/ 194/ 2007) $12...has some good historical pieces on June and her role as a member of America's premier country music family.
4. "At the Corner of Music Row & Memory Lane" by Stan Hitchcock (P/9x6/304/2009) The man who visualised Country Music television (when it was good) Chock full of anecdotes about likes of Ernest Tubb, Red Foley, Little Jimmy Dickens etc $22
5. "Behind Closed Doors: Talking with the Legends of country Music" by Alanna Nash/ (S/9 x6/ 553/ 1988) 27 interviews including fascinating subjects David Allan Coe, Lacy J Dalton, Steve Earle, Bill Monroe etc

Truly a must have $22

6. "Born Country" Randy Owen (of Alabama) (H/9 x 6/ 275/2008) $8
7. "Bumping Into Geniuses: My Life Inside the Rock & Roll Business" by Danny Goldberg (S/8 x 5/ 305/2009) A Public relations supremo for many of the most successful rock and roll stars he gives great anecdotes about the likes of Zevon, Springsteen, Led Zeppelin, Kurt Cobain, Eagles, Bonnie Raitt, Steve Earle etc. $18
8. "Cajun Breakdown: The emergence of an American Made Music" by Ryan Andre Brasseaux (H/9 ½ x 6 1/2/ 317/ 2009) The history of cajun music. Great sections on the Lomax field recordings and cajun pioneer Harry Choates. $25
9. "Country Roads: How Country Came to Nashville" Brian Hinton (S/ 8 x 5 ½ / 474/ 2000) Very comprehensive book with a lot about the outlaw movement, the roots movement and the alt country movement. $18
10. "Duke Ellington" Scott Yanow (H/11 ½ x 11 ½ / 120/1997) Wonderful book for any jazz fan. Amazing pictures. Reminds of time when Duke was going to get a lifetime achievement award from Richard Nixon. Nixon went up to Cab Calloway and said "Mr Ellington, thank you for your wonderful music" and left. Well, he hopefully appreciated the music!
11. "Eddy Arnold: Pioneer of the Nashville sound" By Michael Streissguth (S/9x6/329/1997) A great bio. $18
12. "Facts of Life & Other Dirty Jokes" Willie Nelson (H/9 ½ x 6/ 230/ 2002) Anecdotes, jokes etc. A very humorous book. $15
13. "Forever Yours, Faithfully: My Love Story" Lorrie Morgan with George Vescey (P/7x4/324/1997) The story of Lorrie & her doomed husband Keith Whitley $8
14. "Genuine Elvis: Photos and Untold Stories about the King" Ronnie McDowell (H/6x6/111/2009) Apart from being a fine singer McDowell proves himself to be a great artist with some wonderful paintings reproduced here. There are many chapters with anecdotes about the king. These are from likes of Jerry Chesnut, Pat Boone, Jordinaires/ Ronnie McDowell etc. $8
15. "George Jones: The Life & Times of a Honky Tonk Legend" Bob Allen (H/9x6/306/ 1994[revised]) Classic bio of Jones, arguably the best pulls no punches re his outlandish life style and habits $25
16. "Good Medicine & Good Music: Biography of Mrs Joe Person, Patent remedy of Entrepreneur" by David Hursh and Chris Goertzen (S/9x6/ 216/2009) Was also famous for documenting and collecting many folk songs which became part of the modern scene. The marketing of her "remedies" will open your eyes. Great research $20
17. "Hank Snow Story" with Jack Ownbey and Bob Burris (H/9x6/ 566/ 1994) $45 very hard to get. Hank's autobiography is very detailed and interesting, especially in relation to his early Canadian years where he had to travel for days to make a demo recording. A must for fans of Hank Snow.
18. "Hank Williams: Snapshots from the Lost Highway" by Colin Escott (H/10 ½ x 10 ½ /207/ 2001 This is a must have book if you are in any way a fan of Hank Williams. Escott is one of the best writers (he does a lot for Bear Family) and this offers new perspectives and is loaded with rare pictures obtained from Hank's seemingly long lost sister, Irene Williams Smith, who still referred to "Hank" as Hiram. $35
19. "Hank Williams: The Biography" Colin Escott (S/8 x 5 ½ / 307/1995) Colin Escott's award winning bio. $15
20. "He Is A Say: Neil Diamond" by David Wild (H/ 9 x 6/ 201/ 2008) $12

21. "I Lived To Tell It All" George Jones with Tom Carter (S/7x4/430/1997) $8
22. "I Walked the Line: My Life With Johnny Cash" Vivian Cash with Ann Sharpsteen (S/ 9 x 6/ 320/ 2007) $10
23. "Jerry Lee Lewis – Lost and Found" Joe Bonomo (H/ 8x5/208/2009) Whilst it is impossible to write a book without discussing the persona of Jerry Lee Lewis the man, this devotes more space to the music of Jerry Lee and as such is a must for his fans $22
24. "Jimmy Martin: True Adventures With the King of Bluegrass" Tom Piazza (H/7 ½ x 5/ 108/1999) $15 Great little book. Jimmy was truly a nutter and certainly was untroubled by any hint of false humility.
25. "Jimmie Rodgers" Nolan Porterfield (S/9x6/ 460/ 1992) The definitive bio on Rodgers $20
26. "Johnny Cash: And the Paradox of the American Identity" by Leigh Edwards (S/9 x6/241/ 2009) An in depth study of cash. Was he really a social protester and Christian crusader? Some great in depth writing about classic albums such as "Blood, Sweat & Tears" and "Bitter Tears". $22

28. "Johnny Cash and the Great American Contradiction: Christianity and the Battle for the Soul of a Nation" by Rodney Clapp (S/9x6/154/2008) $5 definitely one for Peter the red from Quaker's Hill!!
29. "King of the Queen City: The Story of King Records" by John Hartley Fox (H/ 9 ½ x 6/242/2009) King was one of the first great independent record labels in America started by Syd Nathan and able to promote country, blues and soul music on an equal basis. It was the home of the likes of Grandpa Jones, Moon Mullican, Delmore Brothers and Charlie Feathers but its biggest star was the Godfather of Soul in James Brown, in act the chapter on Brown is fascinating. $25 Also have a soft cover version for $18)
30. "King Records of Cincinnati: Images of America" by Randy McNutt. (S/ 9 x 6 ½ / 127/2009) One of several new books about the King Records label, this concentrates on the artists with biographical snapshots and rare pictures of both the hillbilly and non hillbilly artist on the label. $18
31. "Lefty Frizzell: The Honky Tonk Life of Country Music's Greatest Singer" Daniel Cooper (H/9x 6/324/1995) $30 Funny and tragic at the same time.
32. "Literary Cash" edited by Bob Batchelor (S/9 x 6/ 257/ 2006) Great read, in fact that is what it perhaps should be called "the Johnny Cash Reader" a collection of articles about Johnny Cash, the man, the myth and the music 415
33. "Living Proof: An Autobiography" Hank Williams Jnr with Michael Bane (S/7 x4./252/1979) $8

36. "Meeting Jimmie Rodgers" by Barry Mazor (H/9x6/ 376/2009) $35 This is a brilliant award winning book praised by Rodgers' biographer Nolan Porterfield and country historian Bill Malone, both complimenting Mazor on his research & new insights.

37. "Music of Bill Monroe" Neil Rosenberg & Charles K Wolfe (H/11 ½ x 8 ½ / 350/ 2007) Big year by year discography and appreciation of his music $28. A must for bluegrass fans...a must.

"Natural Acts: Gender, Race and Rusticity in Country Music" by Pamela Fox (S/9x6/ 267/ 2009) has a special section on women's role in country music and so has extensive pieces on the likes of Kitty Wells and Jean Shepard but also Dolly Parton, Naomi Judd and others. She also writes about modern roots rock/alt country acts such as the Drive By Truckers.

38. "Old Roots New routes: the Cultural Politics of Alt country Music" Pamela Fox & Barbara Ching (S/ 9 x 6/ 281/2008) $10

39. "Proud to Be an Okie: Cultural Politics, Country Music and Migration to Southern California" by Peter La Chapelle (S/9 x6/350/2007) $15 Starting with Woody Guthrie and focussing on the likes of Capitol Records and Merle Haggard this is a solid discussion of the West Coast country music scene.

40. "Public Cowboy #1: The Life & Times of Gene Autry" Holly George Warren (S/ 9 x 6/ 406/ 2007) The warts and all story about the king of the cowboys and yes he was "more than friends" with Gail Davies, TVs Annie Oakley....ooh yeah!! $25

41. "Rambling Man: The Life & Times of Woody Guthrie" Ed Cray (S/8x5 ½ / 488/ 2004) $15 Folk icon and troubled troubadour lacking a sense of responsibility....yep, all of the above.

42. "Rhinestone Cowboy:Glen Campbell" with Tom Carter (H/9 x6/ 253/ 1994) $15

43. "Ring of Fire: The Johnny Cash Reader" Michael Streissguth (H/9x6/ 310/2002.) a collections of articles, stories and reviews written on and about Johnny Cash over the years. Good on

44. "Rough Mix" by Jimmy Bowen (H/9 x 6/ 300/ 1997) written by the famed producer who had a major falling out with Garth Brooks when he (Bowen) was head of Capitol Records' country division). A great look at the music industry and how Brooks changed everything (I would say NOT for the better). You will want to get a highlighter to mark the things he has to say about Brooks. I love Jimmy!!! $15

45. "Songs of Jimmie Rodgers: A legacy in Country Music" by Jocelyn R Neal (S/9x6/318/2009) Great book, focuses both on Jimmie's music and its interpretation over the years! $25

46. "Tammy Wynette: Tragic Country Queen" by Jimmy McDonough (H/ 9 x 6/ 432/ 2010) $35 A must have, must read. Some fascinating bits "Billy Sherrill was known as Little Hitler, and not just because of his fascination with Nazi memorabilia". Great read. We also have an advance soft cover version without the pictures for $22 but the $35 hard cover is the way to go.

47. "Texas Tornado: The Times & Music of Doug Sahm" by Jan Reid/Shawn Sahm (H/9x6/202/2010) Fascinating reading. Was so incredibly well thought of by his peers $32

"Willie: An Autobiography" Willie Nelson with Bud Shrake (S/7x4/ 420/ 1988) $6

48. "Workin' Man Blues: Country Music in California" by Gerald W Haslam (H/ 10 ½ x 7/ 380 / 1999. Big book lots of rare photos and great text. $25

49. "Your Cheatin' Heart: A Biography of Hank Williams" By Chet Flippo (S/ 8x 6/ 250/ 1981) Chet Flippo tells his story narrative style with dialogue between the likes of Hank & Audrey (quite pithy too as they might say). So, it reads like a novel but is factual. A great idea carried off to perfection. $20
